BOY BANDIT COMMITS SUICIDE

Forfeits His Life Rather Than Submit to Capture By Officers in Pursuit.

AGAIN TRIES TO ROB EUDORA BANK

Shoots Inoffensive Cashier During Robbery Attempt Though He Made No Show of Offering Resistance.

EUDORA, Kas., Nov. 12.—Driven to bay by an armed posse, Earl Bullock, the 17 year old bandit of Lawrence, who twice within the last month has robbed the Eudora State bank, and murdered a policeman and shot another man, shot and killed himself here today.

Young Bullock's suicide followed his second robbery of the bank here today and his shooting of Fred Stagg, cashier of the Kaw Valley State bank, who was in the Eudora State bank with his day's clearings.

Accompanied by William McKay, 15 years old, of Jacksonville, Fla., Bullock held up the bank. Although Starr offered no resistance, Bullock shot him through the jaw. Snatching more than $500, Bullock fled, accompanied by his partner, Harry Wilson, cashier of the robbed bank, spread the alarm and a crowd of citizens, armed with shotguns, rifles, and revolvers pursued the boy bandits across the fields. In attempting to swim the Kaw river the boys lost ground and a few minutes later, the mob was at their heels. McKay surrendered, but Bullock, wrenching the revolver from his faltering partner's hands, sped on into a patch of wood. John Miller, a farmer unconnected with the pursuit, stepped into Bullock's path, and the boy, thinking him an enemy fired. His shots missed Miller and the posse, seeing the youth was ready to shoot, fired a score of shots.

Bullock returned the fire. Then realizing that he was about to be captured, he shot himself through the head.

Meantime the crowd threatened to lynch McKay. Officers hustled him to Lawrence in an automobile and placed him in jail.

PREVIOUS HOLDUP

Bullock's previous holdup of the Eudora bank and the murder of Policeman Wilson Pringle, took place on October 11. While in charge of D. S. Wood, a deputy sheriff of Lawrence, who arrested the boy on a charge of having robbed a second hand store, Bullock drew two pistols and forced Wood and Cashier Wilson into the bank vault. Snatching between $400 and $1000, he fled.

That night Pringle was shot to death while attempting to arrest Bullock at his home at Lawrence.

Efforts to locate Bullock were futile, Until McKay made a written statement of his connection with Bullock today, his whereabouts were not known. According to McKay, Bullock had been living at a fashionable hotel in Jacksonville under the name of "C. A. Donaldson."

"Bullock, whom I knew as Donaldson, picked me up in Jacksonville and entertained me royally," said McKay. "When he told me he was a desperado I thought it would be fine to be a real robber like him.

"One day Bullock told me he wanted me to go to Kansas City with him as he knew where there was a little bank near there with only one man in it that we could rob without any trouble.

"We left Jacksonville Sunday and arrived in Kansas City Tuesday. We went to several little towns around Kansas City and finally arrived at Lenate, Kas., two miles from Eudora, yesterday. He gave me some ammunition and two revolvers and told me we would rob the bank today."

McKay said he wanted to surrender soon after he and his pal left the bank they had robbed, when he heard the mob at their heels.

"No, I'll not surrender," Bullock told him. "A real robber fights on until the last. I will die before I will give up."

All the money taken from the bank was found in Bullock's pockets.

He was brought here unconscious.

Fred Starr's wound is said not to be serious.

FEDERAL HOSPITALS BEING INVESTIGATED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. Two hospitals under the jurisdiction of the federal government are under fire as the result of the death of patients in the last few days.

B. C. McFarland, district commissioner, issued orders yesterday for an inquiry into the death of George E. Trimmer at the government hospital for the insane.

It is charged by Trimmer's relatives that there were marks about Trimmer's body which indicated rough treatment.

Another case is that of the death of Lardlow A. Swank at the Freedmen's hospital. The condition of Swank's body is said to have been much like that of Trimmer.

PRACTICAL JOKE CAUSE OF STRIKE

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Because of a practical joke, 1,100 employes of the General Electric Company were idle today. A Polish laborer employed in the foundry had become obnoxious to the core makers and moulders because he poured sand down their backs and smeared their tools with grease.

A few days ago he was thrashed by one of his victims.

The joker was discharged today and the laborers refused to work unless he was reinstated. The moulders and core makers could not proceed without helpers.

CHILE'S NEW WAR VESSEL.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 12.—The naval building program decided upon by the Chilean government provides for the construction of one battleship, four torpedo boat destroyers and two submarines at a total cost of $14,000,000.

BURIED MINER RESCUED ALIVE

REDDING, Nov. 12.—Charles Hartman, believed to have been killed in a cave-in in a mine near Shasta yesterday, was rescued uninjured late last night. Miners digging to recover his body were astounded to hear Hartman's voice and when the shaft was partially cleared, found him virtually unharmed. He had saved himself by jumping behind a huge timber.

Hartman went back to work in the same shaft today.

WHOLE WATER SYSTEM IS FOR SALE

Spring Valley People Offer City of San Francisco the Works for $19,420,750

THIRTY DAYS GIVEN FOR CONSIDERATION

Committee to Fix Price Is Suggested to Include the Chief Justice of the State and Others from Abroad.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—A communication received today by the board of supervisors from the Spring Valley Water Company, which is the city's sole water supply, offers to sell to the city all the distributing systems, pumping stations, reservoirs and other equipment of the company within the county boundaries, including the Merced ranch of 500 acres and the two fresh water lakes thereon, for $19,420,750. The letter also proposes that the company enter into a contract with the city to furnish water to the county line in quantity sufficient to meet the growing needs of San Francisco until the Hetch Hetchy municipal water supply is completed.

The company further proposes that, in case the board is willing to consider the purchase of the entire property with all resources, etc., an arbitration committee be formed to fix a price, the company binding itself to agree to the figures thus arrived at.

The offer of the company follows an announcement by the board that it would consider such proposals on November 15. After quoting the price asked for the systems within the county, the letter suggested that a fifteen-year contract be drawn up for the furnishing of water, the board estimated that time will be required to complete the Hetch Hetchy system. It proposed that 40,000,000 gallons daily be delivered until July 1, 1910, at 15 cents per 1000 gallons; 50,000,000 gallons until 1912, at 14 cents per 1000; 70,000,000 until 1917 at 13 cents per 1000, and 100,000,000 gallons until 1925 at 12 cents per 1000.

It is suggested that the arbitration committee to decide on a price for all the company's holdings be composed of eleven members, three to be appointed by the supervisors, three by the water company, 2 by the president of the United States, two by the governor of the state or by United States judges and the eleventh to be the chief justice of the supreme court of California.

The offers are to be held open for thirty days.

LIBERAL REPORT OF PLAY CENSORS

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The report of the joint committee on the censorship of the drama was made public yesterday. The committee favors the retention of the present censorship administration, but recommends that it should be legal to perform an unlicensed play, leaving it to the public prosecutors to indict the producers and authors of indecent plays.

The effect of the adoption of the recommendation of the report will be to give much greater freedom in the production of dramas of advanced ideas and to permit plays dealing with religious subjects which hitherto have been forbidden.

TONG MEN WILL BE PROSECUTED

Head of Yee Family Starts Proceedings By Swearing to Complaints in Court.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—The feud between the On Yick tong and the Yee family took a new turn tonight, when Yee Long Ling, head of the Yee family, surrounded by armed white guards, journeyed by automobile from San Francisco to this city and completed arrangements for the prosecution of Wong Mgoon and Louie Ling, the alleged murderers of Yee Hang Tee at Mountain View. After a consell at the county prison, where the seven accused on Yick gunmen are imprisoned, Yee Log Ling appeared before Justice of the Peace Brown and swore to charges of murder against the two alleged highbinders mentioned.

Former State Senator Louis O'Neil has been retained by the Yee family to assist the district attorney in the prosecution.

David G. Jones, an interpreter in the federal court, has been secured by the district attorney to take statements from the imprisoned gunmen.

ADVOCATE GENERAL MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR CONVICTION OF MME. STEINHEIL

Prosecutor Shows no Mercy and Accused Woman Is Painted in Darkest of Colors---Alleges She Is Born Liar and That Her Whole Life Would Justify Presumption That She Is Guilty of Having Killed Husband; Doubt Is Being Expressed That Case Will Go to Jury Today

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The entire session of the Steinheil murder trial today was taken up with an impassioned plea of Advocate General Fromard Riolle for the conviction of the woman who is charged with having killed her husband and her step-mother. As Mme. Steinheil's counsel, M. Aubin, is yet to be heard, doubt has arisen as whether the case will go to the jury tomorrow.

The prosecutor showed neither pity nor mercy in his address to the jury. He painted the accused woman in darkest colors—as a born liar, and as one whose whole life, before and after the crime, justified the presumption of guilt. He developed the theory that after the rich and generous lover, Chenaard, abandoned her in 1907, Mme. Steinheil realized she was almost at the end of her tether and when she got Maurice Borderel in her clutches she was determined to hold him even at the price of murder.

WEAVING NET.

When the prosecutor insisted that Mme. Steinheil's story that burglars committed the crime was a myth and he undertook to reconstruct the scenes that actually happened, claiming that while the accused woman and her accomplices were tying Mme. Japy, M. Steinheil was aroused by the noise and jumped out of bed. Thereupon they attacked and killed him and, returning to Mme. Japy's room, found her in a faint.

M. Fromard Riolle undertook to account for the stopping of the clock in the Steinheil home, after the murder, advancing the theory that Mme. Steinheil in her anguish could not endure the ticking. An expert testified during the trial that the clock had been stopped by hand as it was being wound up.

The argument of M. Fromard Riolle left the impression that the testimony upon which it was based was too conflicting and that his fine show presumptions were too precise, leaving him vulnerable to his antagonist, M. Aubin.

DEFENDANT DEPRESSED.

Throughout the day, Mme. Steinheil seemed to be considerably depressed, not once did she interrupt the proceedings, though frequently she clenched her fists and showed signs of anger when the prosecutor made odious insinuations against her. It is understood that at the conclusion of M. Aubin's address Mme. Steinheil intends to address the jury in her own behalf. This would make a dramatic climax and it is expected would have a powerful influence on the jury.

Two things must be remembered in connection with a French verdict. First, the majority vote prevails, the foreman of the jury having no votes if there be a tie; second, the jurors are not confined, but are permitted to return to their homes at night where they are subjected to the possible influences of their wives. It is notorious that whereas a majority of the men here favor the acquittal of Mme. Steinheil, the women almost unanimously believe her guilty.

Mme. Steinheil is being deluged with letters of every character, many of them containing offers of marriage if she is acquitted. Enterprising theatrical managers are trying to arrange for her immediate appearance on the stage after her release. Mme. Steinheil is said to have thrown these letters away in a rage.

WOMEN PRESENT.

Many well dressed, stylish women, managed to gain entrance to the gloomy, stifling court room to hear the concluding arguments in the trial of Madame Steinheil. The accused woman, deathly pale, walked unaided to her seat, but her step was mechanical and her arms hung limply at her side. When she had taken her place she sat with lowered eyes, like one in a dream.

Beginning with the words, "We will live again the tragic night," Fromard Riolle, who had opened his summing up for the prosecution yesterday in cold, dispassionate words, undertook to reconstruct the scenes in the Steinheil home on the night of the tragedy and the morning following.

M. Riolle dwelt particularly on the tell-tale ink stains which the two physicians who examined the injuries of Madame Steinheil claimed to have found on her knee. The prosecutor claimed that during this binding of Madame Japy an ink stand in her room was overturned, the fluid being spattered upon the bedding and upon the accused.

He insisted the evidence proved the apparent illness of the accused after the commission of the crime had been simulated and that subsequent developments confirmed the suspicion that she had acted with hypocrisy throughout.

It was when the police had definitely rejected her story of the Gaberdine-clad burglars and she saw her lover, Borderel, slipping from her net because the mystery was unsolved, the prosecutor said, that Madame Steinheil, in desperation, began to accuse innocent persons.

PROSECUTOR SEVERE.

He added:

"She wished to avoid the possibility of a non-suit in her favor because such an outcome of the case would not satisfy Borderel and so, unhesitatingly, she placed the accusing pearl in the pocket of her servant, Remy Couillard."

As the advocate-general proceeded he became increasingly severe in his denunciation of the prisoner and frequently murmurs of dissent came from those in the court room.

As she heard herself described as a cold, calculating fiend, with a soft exterior, Madame Steinheil bit her lips and raised her clenched hand in mute protest. At the conclusion of his description of the night scene, when the widow made her alleged false statements to the journalist, the prosecutor taunted:

"She can't tell the truth because she is guilty."

PROMINENT SUGAR MAN IS INDICTED

Accused of Conspiracy to Defraud Government By False Entry of Weights.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—After months of quiet work by the government investigators who have been scrutinizing the ins and outs of the complicated sugar fraud, there came suddenly today the indictment and arrest of an important former official of the American Refining Company, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by false weighing of sugar. The man arrested is James F. Bendernagle, for more than thirty years superintendent of the Havemeyer & Elder refinery in Williamsburg, the largest plant of the American Sugar Refining Company.

When arraigned before United States Commissioner Benedict and asked to give $5000 bail for his appearance next Monday, Bendernagle produced the required amount in cash.

The indictment returned against Bendernagle is of the blanket variety, including in its terms also the so-called "big six" oliver Spitzer, Thomas Kelsoe, Edward A. Boyle, Jean M. Voelker, John R. Coyle and Patrick J. Henneberry, all of whom have been previously indicted on similar charges. The six were Bendernagle's associates in the capacity of agents.

The specific charges against Bendernagle are that he defrauded the government out of duty to the amount of $1684 in connection with the fabrication of 300,000 pounds sugar cargo of the steamer Eva, which arrived from Cuba on August 4, 1907. A little more than 300,000 pounds were clipped off the real weight when the customs clerks made against four members of the so-called "big six" alleging the use of fraudulent devices on the scales at the docks in short-weigh sugar. It was in connection with the charges that the government last spring recovered $2,330,000 in duties and penalties.

WASHOUT DELAYS SENATE COMMITTEE

Delegation Arrives Late at Bakersfield, But See the Irrigation System.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Nov. 12. The United States Senate committee on irrigation was delayed four hours en route to Bakersfield this morning by reason of a washout.

The party was met by H. A. Jastro, W. S. Tevis and Captain McKittrick and the members of the committee were shown the irrigation system of the county, visiting the intakes of some of the big canals.

Later they were the guests at luncheon of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tevis at their Stockdale home. A public reception was held during the afternoon.

COLONEL DENNY BACK ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Colonel Frank Denny, chief quartermaster of the marine corps, returned today from Honolulu, where he has been engaged in preparing plans for the construction of extensive marine barracks at the Pearl Harbor station. Colonel Denny stated that the quarters would accommodate 40th marines when completed and that six sets of officers' quarters would also be constructed. Before his departure for Washington next Friday, Colonel Denny will inspect the naval station on Yerba Buena Island and the marine quarters at Mare Island.

COLORADO RIVER LEAVING CHANNEL

Irrigation Company Fears Trouble Though None Has So Far Been Developed.

EL CENTRO, Cal., Nov. 12. Engineers for the California Development Company have completed their exploration of the Colorado river and found the whole volume of the river is leaving the old channel at a point nearly opposite the Arizona-Sonora boundary line and flowing by way of the Rio Alegos channel into the Rio Pescador and then by way of the Hardy river to the gulf. The old channel from the point of diversion to the mouth of the Hardy is dry. The Colorado river is flowing smoothly and peacefully by the new route to the gulf. It was feared that the change of course might make trouble for the irrigation company, but nothing of that nature has developed. There is now no danger of a shortage of water in the valley and no menace to levees or any of the works at present.

S. P. RAILROAD GETS JUDGMENT

Action Against California Development Company in Court Since Last June.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 12. A decision was rendered today by Superior Judge Hauser, giving the Southern Pacific a judgment of $1,385,000 against the California Development Company.

The suit grew out of alleged loans by the Southern Pacific to the California Development Company at the time the Colorado river threatened to flood large areas in Imperial valley.

The case was begun June 21st and has occupied all of the time of the court since that date. Nearly three months were occupied with the taking of testimony.

The defense of the Development Company was that the Southern Pacific Company through manipulation was able to fill the directorate of the California Development Company with men of its own selection, and that the work was done for the greater part for the protection of properties of the Southern Pacific and not that of the California Development Company.

ONLY RAINS 120 INCHES IN SAMOA

Season Is Said to Be the Dryest That Has Ever Been Known There.

TUTUILA, Samoa, Nov. 14, via San Francisco, Nov. 12.—This year has been the driest ever known in Samoa and the total rainfall will not exceed 120 inches. Last year's rainfall was 222 inches. To one unfamiliar with the island conditions the rainfall seems excessive, yet this year's precipitation has been so insufficient here and in German Samoa that pasturage, plantations and the water supply systems have been considerably affected. In American Samoa the plantations have not been affected, but the water famine has threatened at times.

ORIENTAL GOODS ARE UNDERVALUED

DeVries Makes Oral Report on Customs Methods and Investigation Is Likely.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh today received an oral report from President Marion DeVries of the United States board of general appraisers, regarding recent investigation of under-valuation of goods imported through the San Francisco custom house.

Mr. DeVries showed that a particularly large percentage of under-valuation had been found in importations from the Orient. They will not involve the integrity of the customs officials and the aggregate loss sustained was not estimated.

Mr. DeVries was accompanied by Deputy Assistant Attorney General Frank Lloyd of the customs court of appeals. Later the two men conferred with Attorney General Wickersham.

Secretary MacVeagh is figuring on a "house cleaning" in the system of special agents. He is looking into the question of their efficiency and he is inclined to believe some change in the old methods desirable. Some irregularities in customs are expected to be developed at ports other than New York.

REPORT ON COST OF RIVERS AND HARBORS

List Includes $350,000 for Oakland and $100,000 at San Luis Obispo.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. General Marshall, chief of engineers of the army, has report today back estimates for river and harbor improvements for the coming fiscal year amounting to more than $27,048,037.

The estimates include the following:

$100,000, San Luis Obispo harbor, California.

$350,000, Oakland harbor.

$1,000,000, Columbia river, between the foot of The Dalles rapids and the head of Celilo falls.

$105,000, canal at the Cascades, Columbia river.

$175,000, Colorado and lower Willamette river below Portland, Oregon.

$1,540,000 mouth of Columbia river.

$120,000, Puget Sound and its tributaries.

$1,100,000, St. Michael canal, Alaska.

$200,000, Honolulu harbor, Hawaii.

$300,000, harbor at Hilo, Hawaii.

For fortifications the chief engineer submitted estimates to the secretary of war of $2,027,746, of which $1,605,546 was for fortifications in the Philippines.

TRAIN BRAKEMAN KILLED IN WRECK

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Nov. 12.—By the wrecking of a freight train this afternoon seventeen miles east of here, Brakeman M. E. Lewis was instantly killed and Engineer McComb was injured.

GAYNOR SPENT NO MONEY IN ELECTION

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—William J. Gaynor, mayor-elect of New York, filed a statement with the secretary of state today by which he swears that he did not expend any money to further his election.

KITCHENER IS ENTERTAINED.

TOKIO, Nov. 12.—Field Marshal Lord Kitchener has received from the emperor the Grand Cordon of the Rising Sun. Lord Kitchener has been entertained on a grand scale during his stay here.

PEARY DELIVERS FIRST LECTURE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—"I had made good to myself, my country and the flag of my country," declared Commander Robert E. Peary tonight, after describing to a distinguished audience, among whom were statesmen, diplomats and scientists, how, after years of toil and perseverance, he had reached the North Pole.

It was Peary's first lecture since his return from the frozen north and was delivered under the auspices of the National Geographic Society.

PRISON CLERK KILLED ON ROCKS

Drops or Is Thrown Out of the Window of the Third Floor on Alcatraz Island.

HIS COMPANION COMMITS SUICIDE

No Previous Quarrel Heard and the Whole Affair and the Investigation Made Fails to Clear Mystery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Searching inquiry into the death of Thomas Mullaly, clerk of Company B., prison guards of the United States military prison on Alcatraz island, and the subsequent suicide of his room mate, Quartermaster Sergeant Roy Ford, has failed to throw any light on the double tragedy which occurred last night. Mullaly fell from his window on the third floor of the stone barrack building and was dashed to death on the iron grating below. Ford, who was in the room at the time, locked himself in the company store room when he ascertained that Mullaly was dead and shot himself through the head when an effort was made to force the door.

Mullaly and Ford were room mates and apparently good friends, according to their comrades. The former was seated in the company reading room last night when Ford appeared at the door and asked to speak to him privately. They retired to their own room and a few moments later Mullaly was heard to cry out in fear and his body crashed against the iron grating below. All of the witnesses examined declared that no sounds of quarreling were heard.

FORD ALIVE.

Private Davis, who occupies the room just beneath the one from which Mullaly fell, saw the body fall past his window. He rushed downstairs and, finding Mullaly was dead, hastened back to the barracks. He encountered Ford on the stairway and the sergeant asked if his room mate was dead. Davis answered that he was and Ford exclaimed, "My God, what shall I do?" The post surgeon was summoned and when he pronounced Mullaly's life extinct, Lieutenant Sledge went in search of Ford to get his version of the affair. He found the sergeant locked in the company store room. Sledge rattled the door, but Ford refused to make any answer and when the officer summoned assistance to break in, a muffled shot sounded from the room. When the door gave way Ford's body was found with his revolver beside it and a hole in his head.

When the news of the tragedy first reached here it was reported that the men had quarreled as a result of inverted accounts and that Mullaly had been thrown from the window. Colonel R. P. Turner, post commandant, stated that there was the slightest irregularity in either man's accounts. No quarreling was heard and there had been no evidence of ill-feeling between the men at any time. The inquiry held today failed to disclose anything that would tend to explain the mystery surrounding the case.

TONG MAN'S CASE IS SET BY COURT

Bonds of Participants in the Murderous War Are Fixed at Amount of $20,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Police Judge Shortall fixed the bonds today for Tong King Chong, secretary of the Chinese Free Masons and editor of the Chinese Daily Free Press, and Gee Hong On, president of the On Yick tong, at $20,000 each. The men, who have been charged with conspiracy to murder Yee Fong Hong, one of the Yee tong killed November 2nd, are still at large, but it is believed they will surrender as soon as bonds are procured for their appearance.

Yee Yim was arraigned today on the charge of having murdered Ow Ying Gun, the On Yick, who was shot Wednesday night. The case went over until next Wednesday.

OLD PAINTING OF CHRIST FOR SALE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 12.—In the belief that a seventeenth century painting of Christ's head might prove of value, Giovanni Sanfilippio, a mill hand who claims that the picture has been in his family for more than 300 years, sent it yesterday to New York for appraisement. It is said that the painting was the work of Guido Reni.

SOLDIERS ON GUARD AT CAIRO

Seven Military Companies Escort Negro Alexander Between Jail and Train.

CROWD JEERS AND YELLS ITS THREATS

Coroner's Jury Finds That Lynched Men Met Death at the Hands of Persons Not Yet Known to Them.

CAIRO, Nov. 12. — With the negro Arthur Alexander, last of those arrested in connection with the murder here on Wednesday of Miss Annie Pelley, safe out of town, and some 450 members of the fourth regiment of the Illinois National Guard on duty in the streets and about the jail tonight, the mob spirit that has held Cairo for four days seems quelled. Every known danger point is occupied by troops.

Alexander, reported to have been implicated in the murder of Miss Pelley by the dying statement of the negro James, one of the victims of last night's mob, was sent to an unannounced point north of here late this afternoon. He was escorted from the jail to a special train by seven companies of militia.

There were jeers and defiance for the militia from the small crowd that witnessed the departure.

"That's him;" "He will come back;" "Burn the nigger," and "We will get him yet," came from the spectators.

Two sets of fours were in advance of the prisoner, who was handcuffed and flanked by deputy sheriffs. Two sets of fours followed. As the troopers swung north toward the railroad along Twentieth street, three companies cleared the street in advance of the escort, and a like number followed in the rear, keeping back the crowds.

DESTINATION UNKNOWN.

General Wells and Col. H. S. Shand of the adjutant general's office refused to tell what they knew of the plans for the safe-keeping of the prisoner.

"He will not be taken to Springfield, and when he is taken off the train he will be at some point far enough north to prevent any attempt to recapture him by a mob from this section," said Col. Shand.

The local authorities left the disposition of the prisoner to the state authorities and turned their attention to the murderer of Miss Pelley and the riots last night. Coroner's verdicts were rendered on both the men lynched, in each case the jury finding "That he came to his death by injuries at the hands of persons unknown to us."

Early in the day Sheriff Davis told of recognizing several members of the mob that took James from his care last night, but what steps will be taken to bring those implicated in the uprising to trial has not been determined.

MAYOR ASLEEP.

Mayor Parsons said he was asleep and heard no shot or other sound to indicate that the city was in the hands of a mob.

"I am ready to do everything that my own office requires," said State's Attorney Wilson. "The question of calling a special grand jury is one to be decided by Judge W. N. Butler of the circuit court. However, we shall have a regular grand jury when court convenes here in December and I shall present to it any evidence that comes into my possession before that time. I don't expect to collect that evidence myself, as detective work is not a part of my duties."

The only ground for holding Alexander was declared to be the dying confession of James. None of the officials would acknowledge that any evidence of this alleged confession had come to him.

"In an effort to clear up the murder case, the police searched the houses frequented by James and Alexander for the missing money, hand-bag and bracelets of the murdered girl. They found nothing.

"A whole regiment of soldiers could not have stopped the work of last night's mob," declared Mayor Parsons, and Sheriff Davis echoed this sentiment, adding: "There would have been wholesale bloodshed had soldiers been here last night."

SHERIFF TELLS STORY.

Sheriff Davis told his story of the manner in which James had been taken from him. After detailing his wanderings in the woods of Union county after he had left the train at Dongola, he told of leaving James in charge of the deputy sheriff while he went to Karnak to obtain provisions.

"The postmaster at Karnak, who is also a storekeeper there, recognized me," said Davis. "Because of this we made a detour through the woods about the town and walked east five miles to Belnap, where we struck through the woods until the water drove us to the railroad track. We entered a house to rest but were warned by a citizen of Belnap that a crowd had left Cairo to intercept us. So we took to the country again, walking across the corn fields for a couple of miles.

"The whistling of the train warned us that the crowd had reached Belnap. We lay down in some tall weeds to conceal ourselves but in a few minutes a scouting party passed. In a few minutes another party went by, one of whom I recognized as the Karnak postmaster. The next party numbered five and one of them mounted a stump and saw us. He fired several shots in the air and a crowd began to gather. One of the party was Mr. Logan of Cairo and I appealed to him to see that no violence was committed.

"He assured me that they asked that James be taken back to Cairo and given a speedy trial. I promised them that this was to be done, and then they started us toward the train. In the train I seated myself beside the prisoner, but as we entered Cairo some one threw a rope around James' neck. I at once took it off and was struck several blows by members of the party. Others caught the end of the rope and dragged James from the train. I heard no confession from James."

Discussion of events of last night centers about the condition that brought mob rule to the city.

GREAT DAMAGE CAUSED BY STORM

Banana Plantations Suffer and Fruit Trade Is Said to Be at a Standstill.

KINGSTON, Jam., Nov. 10.—Via Holland Bay, Jam., Nov. 12.—From the fragmentary reports arriving here from the countryside, the damage resulting from the storms and floods that raged throughout this island last Friday is enormous. A portion of the railway and coastline on the north side of the island have been seriously damaged.

Property in and around Kingston suffered severely, the damage sustained being estimated at $500,000.

The recorded rainfall from November 6 to November 10 was forty-eight inches. There are no signs of the weather breaking.

Communication was established today with the North Coast by steamer. All telegraph wires are down and messages are being sent from Kingston to the cable house by boat.

The banana plantations in the north and northeastern portions of the islands have been badly hit by the storms. Thousands of acres of trees have been levelled and the fruit trade is at a complete standstill.

The United Fruit Company's steamer Bradford, which went ashore at Port Antonio, is a total wreck.

The steamer Bradford was built at Copenhagen in 1904. She was 912 tons net register and was owned by M. Jobsen of Hamburg.

WANT LEGAL AGE FOR GIRLS RAISED

Representatives of the San Francisco district on the nominating committee at the state convention in Santa Barbara next April, Mrs. H. L. Seger of the Corona Club of San Francisco.

Representatives on the credential committee, at the state convention, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy of the Woman's Club, San Jose.

A resolution endorsing the juvenile court system was adopted, also a resolution urging that the legal age of girls be raised to 21 years and the age of consent to 18 years.

This afternoon E. R. Zion of San Francisco delivered an address on civil service reform. The convention will adjourn sine die this evening.

WRECKED SCHOONER IS TOTAL LOSS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12. — The schooner Montezuma, lying at the seawall, capsized today and the cargo of 2,500 sacks of wheat, is a total loss. There was no one aboard the vessel at the time of the accident. It is believed that a sudden squall caused the heavy cargo to shift and overturn the schooner.

TRAIN WRECKED.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 12.—A westbound extra freight train collided with a side-tracked work train at Deeth, 350 miles east of this city, tonight. The engine and three cars of the work train were overturned, delaying traffic for seven hours. There were no injuries.

PRISONERS STILL REFUSING FOOD

Seventy-Three Men Have Gone Full Week Without Taking Any Food.

SPOKANE, Nov. 11.—The "starvation strike" of the I. W. W. street orators dwindled again today. Every one of the fifty-two prisoners in the city jail awaiting trial ate a breakfast of bread, meat, vegetables and coffee, and each of the sixty-two convicted men under guard at the Franklin school accepted bread and water. But the seventy-three men in the guard house at Fort George Wright still refuse all food. Some have gone seven days without eating and their condition is pitiable; but they still refuse all food as stoutly as the bread and water gang refuse to work on the city's rock pile.

Both the city officials and the I. W. W.'s appear determined that this shall be a finish fight. The report is current among the members of the order that 1000 men are coming from the south and 1500 from the East to aid in the agitation for the repeal of the ordinance forbidding street speaking within the fire limits. To this Police Chief Sullivan replies that he "can accommodate about 5000 more prisoners."

Another report is that the I. W. W.'s propose to bring many women speakers here and fill the jail with them in the hope of arousing public sympathy.

MORE DELAY IN ALMA BELL CASE

Elisors Will Proceed Up Into the Mountains in Their Search for Talesmen

AUBURN, Cal., Nov. 12.—The failure of twenty-four of the special venire of twenty-five summoned to appear in court today in the trial of Alma Bell to respond to their names, led to the adjournment of court without any progress having been made.

It is probable that the elisors will go into the mountains to select the venire, as there is little chance that the requisite number of men unfamiliar with the case will be found along the railroad. This will mean several days' travel for the mountaineers to be summoned, as the snow is already heavy in the higher altitudes.

"I am growing very tired of the delay in the beginning of the actual trial," said Miss Bell today. "Since the trial began it has been hard for me to sleep at night. I am always picturing to myself the coming incidents of the trial and so anxious to tell my story to the jury and so certain they will believe me that the delay is wearing."

HEAVY DOWNPOUR STOPS TRAFFIC

KINGSTON, Jamiaca, via Holland Bay, Nov. 12.—Torrential rains, causing serious floods, have fallen here since last Friday. The downpour continues, the daily fall averaging ten inches.

Railway and electric car operations have been disorganized and telegraphic communication is possible only with the western part of the island. Many drownings are reported and the property loss is heavy.

From the meager facts obtainable it is known that landslides have occurred throughout the north and that in the eastern section of the island railroad bridges have been washed away. Loss of life is reported, though no estimate can be made. Enormous damage has been done to banana and other plantations.

Numerous sloops have been lost off the coast. The Norwegian steamer Amanda and the Bradford of the United Fruit Company are ashore at Port Antonio.

MUSHET LIKELY TO ASK RECOUNT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12. — It is stated today that W. C. Mushet, city auditor, who was a candidate for mayor at Wednesday's primaries and who was defeated on the face of the returns for second place on the ticket by George C. Smith by 51 votes, probably will demand a recount of the ballots unless he is given first place in the official canvass next Monday. It is claimed by the Mushet managers that irregularities have been discovered which wipe out the apparent majority against their candidate.

COL. ROOSEVELT REPORTED SAFE

NAKURU, Naivasha Province, British East Africa, Nov. 12.—A courier who arrived here today from Gabu Ingishu plateau reported that all members of the American hunting expedition now in the plateau were well.

A careful scrutiny of cable dispatches sent out from here during the last several days proves that the rumor that Colonel Roosevelt had met with an accident, did not originate here.

TUNNEL CAVE-IN FINALLY RAISED

REDDING, Cal., Nov. 12.—The blockade of the Shasta route of the Southern Pacific which has prevailed ever since the tunnel near Coram caved in on a freight train November 1 has been raised. The southbound Oregon express went through the tunnel, but the passengers were transferred.

By tonight the tunnel and the open cut will be safe for the passage of all passenger trains on their usual schedule.

AUTO DRIVER IS FOUND ON DESERT

Lost During Race and Is Without Food or Water for Period of 30 Hours.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 12.—Driver Charles Harris of the "Baby" Ford car in the Los Angeles-Phoenix road race, who became lost on the desert during the race, was found by a searching party early today about ninety miles from Phoenix. Harris was utterly exhausted by his experience, having been without food or water for thirty hours, and is ill from the effects of his suffering. He is being brought by stage to Phoenix and will arrive tonight.

Harris had broken a steering knuckle on his car Monday night and waited some time for a new one to be brought to him. He finally repaired the old one and started on to Phoenix at night, but became lost in the barren mountains. For two days he drove his car over the desert sands looking for a road, and when the automobile party found him today he was half way between Salome and Buckeye, and traveling the Phoenix road, which he had finally found. Harris had suffered greatly from lack of water and food. His car was driven into Phoenix today by one of the rescue party.

TRUSTEES DEFEND VETOED ORDINANCE

Four Members of Board Issue Statement.

Say Properly Construed Its Inhibitions Included Clubs.

Editor Republican:—As to the editorial in your issue of the 12th inst., entitled "The Mayor's Veto," those who were instrumental in the preparation of the ordinance in question wish to be heard with reference to some of the statements made in the editorial attacking the form of the ordinance.

With the motives of the mayor in exercising the prerogative of his office this statement has nothing to do, and as to the policy to be hereafter pursued, that will be a matter for future consideration.

Some of the statements in your editorial are so utterly at variance with the facts that it has occurred to us that if the same are allowed to go unchallenged, the people who have not taken the time or had the opportunity to carefully read and consider the proposed ordinance may be misled by your statements concerning it. The so-called initiative and referendum ordinance, which was submitted to the vote of the people at the last election, was intended to prohibit the sale of liquors at retail in saloons; but it recited that the provisions thereof should not apply to the sale of liquors for medicinal purposes by regularly licensed druggists, upon the prescription of a physician, nor to the sale of liquor for chemical or mechanical purposes, nor to the sale of liquors at hotels and restaurants when sold with food as a part of a regular meal, nor sales in wholesale liquor establishments in quantities of not less than one quart, nor to be drunk on the premises. The foundation for the present ordinance was the ordinance voted upon by the people, and we felt impelled to enact therein substantially those things which the people voted upon, and to make the ordinance, if possible, invulnerable to attacks through the courts, and at the same time make the procedure under it such that its provisions could be enforced in a practical manner as against violations. The proposed ordinance so far as its provisions or form are concerned is, as before stated, based upon the ordinance voted upon by the people, and upon other ordinances considered the best in the state on this subject, coupled with some ideas of those who contributed to formulating its provisions adapting it to the local conditions. To draft an ordinance which would meet every possible objection would be a most difficult thing, considering the multitude of opinions upon its subject, but it is beyond question that this ordinance is ample to stand any popular test under the rule of construction laid down by you in your editorial, namely: if the whole community would join in good faith, and in good spirit, in the enforcement and acceptance of the provisions of the ordinance, and the saloon people would join in welcoming and supporting the ordinance, rejoicing that we now have a government which, in all its departments, can be trusted to enforce it in absolute honor, fairness and good faith. The reception of the ordinance in such a manner would have, undoubtedly, made it perfectly feasible in every respect.

But you attack the ordinance in three specific instances, to-wit:

(a)—It carefully discriminates between the sort of drinking poor men do, and the sort of drinking more prosperous men do.

(b)—It is drawn with such oblivion to the trade sizes of such packages that it prevents the sale of many of the established sizes.

(c)—The restriction it places on drug stores is ridiculous. * * But by the ordinance, one desirous of purchasing alcohol for bathing or burning would have to get a physician's prescription (not refillable) for each purchase.

The first objection is probably based upon the special club feature of the ordinance. Under the ordinance, as originally drawn, bona fide clubs could serve liquor to members, but all that was eliminated, and the ordinance as finally passed by the board of trustees, properly construed, would prohibit the serving or sale of any and all liquors in clubs. As to the purchasing of liquor in the drug stores, the wholesale liquor store, or in a restaurant with and as a part of a bona fide meal, the rich and the poor, as well as all other classes, are on an equality.

As to the second objection, we desire to call your attention to the fact that the ordinance originally voted on by the people fixed one quart as the minimum quantity for sales made at wholesale in the original packages. Now those having knowledge of the wholesale liquor business tell us that the so-called quart bottles do not contain one-fourth of a gallon, but do contain more than one-fifth of a gallon. In order to conform to the "trade sizes of such packages," and yet to keep within the spirit of the provisions of the initiative and referendum ordinance, the minimum limit for wholesale business was fixed at one-fifth of a gallon in the proposed ordinance, and this limitation is incorporated in practically all of the ordinances dealing with this subject. It may be true that there are other smaller trade sizes, many of them perhaps, and some of the size containing no more than one drink of whiskey, but the size prescribed by the ordinance is, we understand, the usual and ordinary trade size. As to whether or not this limitation in the size of the package would deprive any person of the privilege of drinking liquor is very doubtful. The ordinance makes no discrimination whatever, as it is general in its application, applying to all classes and conditions alike. In any event, it seems that the assertion that discrimination exists belongs to the realm of speculative opinion only, and there may be many opinions, to prove any one of which would require that the ordinance go into effect and be tested.

As to the third objection concerning drug stores, the statement in that regard is utterly at variance with the ordinance. This provision of the ordinance may be somewhat cumbersome and deals with this particular phase of the subject in detail for reasons obvious to every person at all conversant with such matters. Read the record in Selma vs. Brewer. It is intended to prevent the "blind pig" method of proceeding. The history of cities where liquor selling is restricted is that drug stores very often become retail liquor depots, and hence these provisions. They do not hamper the business nor deny the public any privileges. You assert, "But by the ordinance, one desirous of purchasing alcohol for bathing or burning, would have to get a physician's prescription (not refillable) for each purchase." Nothing can be further from the fact, as anyone may see who examines the ordinance as published. If that were the purport of the ordinance, we should be compelled to concur in your opinion that it is ridiculous. But the ordinance in section 22 provides "any registered pharmacist ..... who has received such license may sell alcohol for medicinal, mechanical or scientific uses," subject only to registering the name of the purchaser. It is true that druggists can sell intoxicating liquors only upon prescription, but that is not true of alcohol. You could have had your alcohol bath under the ordinance without procuring a physician to certify that you needed it, and as for burning,—well let that be a matter for future consideration.

You refer to the ordinance as one which permits a person to buy a bottle of beer but not a glass. As originally prepared, the ordinance made two classes of restaurant liquor licenses, under one of which liquor could be served with meals either by the bottle or by the glass, but as a compromise measure this was eliminated together with the club liquor license, leaving the ordinance as voted on the same in that respect as the initiative and referendum ordinance, except that the liquor served must be served in the original package, but no limitation is placed on the size or amount thereof.

Let it be said in conclusion that the avowed purpose of the ordinance adopted was to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors, and as an element in this regulation to abolish the open saloon. That the ordinance would have accomplished the abolition of the saloon there is no doubt. How wise its provisions are (or were) with reference to the matters of regulation would have been proven by putting it into operation. That the ordinance as a whole, or any of its provisions are ridiculous we must deny and must attribute any such statement to an immature consideration of its provisions. It is the result of the work of a number of persons of pretty fair average ability, who conscientiously devoted a considerable time to its preparation, and under the belief that as drawn it was workable, and that its provisions could be enforced, and in any event, the chances for its practical working and successful operation and enforcement were infinitely greater than for the enforcement of the so-called initiative and referendum ordinance. We should regret to feel that you, or any considerable number of respectable persons, after due consideration, should consider it as "ridiculous."

People differ as to whether such an ordinance is advisable or at all practicable. We do not here discuss that question. But we do assert that if any person who desires the passage of an ordinance containing substantially the provisions as contained in the so-called initiative and referendum ordinance, and sincerely desires same to be so written that it can be enforced, instead of being violated with impunity, he will, on a careful examination of same, be reasonably satisfied with the provisions of Ordinance No. 559 as it was finally framed and voted upon by the members of the board of trustees.

Respectfully,
ALVA E. SNOW,
ERNEST KLETTE,
GEO. W. JONES,
H. F. MARTIN,
Members of the Board of City Trustees.

Fresno, Cal., November 12, 1909.

[The above statement does not discuss the general policy of the ordinance, or the veto, but only certain details on which what we misunderstood to be the mayor's criticisms were justified in the Republican.

On one point we stand corrected. We hastily confused two provisions of the drug store regulation. The provision for a non-refillable prescription applies to whisky, but not to alcohol. Such a provision is justified only in prohibition towns, where the purpose is to prevent the commercial sale of whisky. Under this ordinance, its only purpose would have been to protect the liquor merchant against competition. The alcohol provision requires the purchaser to sign the poison book, explaining the purpose of the purchase. This would prevent ordering by telephone, and puts alcohol for bathing or burning in the class with strychnine or morphine.

All the other points are questions of construction. We are glad the authors of the ordinance so construe it (though some of their supporters will be horrified to learn) that it "would prohibit the serving or sale of any and all liquors in clubs." Certainly, if serving of drinks in saloons is to be prohibited, it should be prohibited in clubs also. But this is not our understanding, nor we understand the mayor's information of the effect of the ordinance.

The signers of the above communication inserted a provision permitting restaurants to sell by the glass (the poor man's way), as well as by the bottle (the "more prosperous man's way"), in their original ordinance. Presumably the compromise which eliminated it is against their judgment still.

As to "trade sizes," all wines and beers are habitually put up in "pints" (one-tenth gallon) as well as quarts, and some malt extracts and imported ales, porters, etc., are put up in no other sizes.—Editor Republican.]

MILITIAMEN ARE AWARDED MEDALS

Mayor Rowell Makes Presentation Speech.

Mombers of Company C Give Exhibition Drill Prior to Distribution.

In the presence of a large number of friends, the members of Company C who qualified for medals in the target practice of 1909, were presented with the medals at Armory hall last night by Mayor Rowell.

There was a large turn-out of the company, about forty-five men being in line. All were in full dress uniform. Immediately preceding the awarding of the medals the men were put through some snappy drill work by Captain Stephenson and Lieutenants Neal and Phillips.

The names of the men who had qualified were called out after the drill and as each man's name was called, he responded by stepping out to a point three paces in front of the company.

Mayor Rowell was then introduced by Captain Stephenson and in a brief address commended the boys for their fine showing and informed them that they should be proud that they belonged to such organizations. He assured them that the people of Fresno took a great interest in their welfare and that the city government did likewise.

In regard to the quarters which the company now occupies, Mayor Rowell stated that they were very poor, but added that he would do all in his power to secure better barracks for both militia organizations in the city.

Previous to his address, Mayor Rowell was given the medals by Captain Stephenson and at its close he turned the medals over to Lieutenants Neal and Stephenson for distribution. After Captain Stephenson had thanked him for his courtesy, the members of the company rewarded him with three rousing cheers.

After the presentation of the medals, the boys were addressed by Major Ed Jones and Harry Joseph, who both commended the company on its fine showing. Lieutenant J. J. Phillips gave a very encouraging report on the progress he is making with the basketball team and it was announced that the company will give a military ball at Armory hall on New Year's eve.

FRESNO THIRD IN MINERAL OUTPUT

Kern Leads With Shasta Second; Value of Production in State Is $66,363,198.

According to figures just received from the United States geological survey, Fresno county stands third among the counties of the state in the amount of mineral production for 1908, being exceeded only by Kern and Shasta counties. The total production of Kern county is $10,896,912, while the valuation placed on the production from Shasta county is $6,982,857. Los Angeles county follows closely on the heels of Fresno, the total production from that county for 1908 being valued at $5,978,471.

The total mineral production of the state for 1908 is valued at $66,363,198, while the production for 1907 was valued at $55,697,949. Included in these figures are figures for gold, silver and platinum.

In the production of gold and silver, Fresno stands next to last on the list, Colusa county being at the bottom of the ladder. The production of gold in this county in 1908 amounted to $1054, while the production of silver amounted to $11.

WORKMEN ROBBED BY HIGHWAYMEN

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 12.—Two unmasked highwaymen held up a hotel at Midvale, near here, last night and robbed ten sandlot employes of pay checks and cash aggregating $600. One man covered the crowd with a revolver while his companion swiftly went through the pockets of the crowd.

Hundreds of folks here are needlessly miserable and worried because of out-of-order kidneys, backache or bladder trouble.

If you will take several doses of Pape's Diuretic all misery from a lame back, rheumatism, painful stitches, inflamed or swollen eyelids, nervous headache, irritability, dizziness, worn-out, sick feeling and other symptoms of overworked or deranged kidneys will vanish.

Uncontrollable, smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends.

This unusual preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system, and distributes its healing, cleansing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

The moment you suspect any kidney or urinary disorder, or feel rheumatism coming, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence.

Only curative results can come from taking Pape's Diuretic, and a few days' treatment means clean, active, healthy kidneys, bladder and urinary organs—and you feel fine.

Accept only Pape's Diuretic—fifty-cent treatment—from any drug store—anywhere in the world.

AVOID THE KNIFE

CUTTING WON'T CURE PILES—INTERNAL TREATMENT NEEDED.

A gardener doesn't kill weeds by cutting their tops. He attacks the root. Just so with piles—the cause lies within, entirely out of reach of surgical instruments, ointments or suppositories. The only cure for piles is internal, and the only guaranteed internal remedy is Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid. It has cured 98 per cent of cases, and 24 days' treatment is sold for $1 at the San Joaquin Drug Co., under positive guarantee, or mailed by Dr. Leonhardt Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. THINK OFFICIALS WARNED CRIMINAL

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 12.—Several weeks ago, Earl Lynnell, about 18 years old, fatally stabbed Earl Davis, about the same age, and fled across the border into Lower California. It is understood that Governor Vega of Lower California, gave orders that Lynnell be apprehended as requested by the San Diego authorities. But Governor Vega went to Los Angeles to greet President Taft, and in the absence of the governor, it is alleged that somebody gave the suspected youth a tip, and he recrossed the border into California. As a result it is reported that an investigation is in progress below the line, and that it has to do with the conduct of Mexican rurales, and one or two officials of prominence.

PRESIDENT'S TOUR

President Taft's tour started with a speech of big constructive thought and ended with a speech of big constructive policies. Between, the speeches were mostly pleasantly unimportant, with the exception of the Winona tariff speech, which fell flat and put some damper on the whole tour, and of the Seattle conservation speech, which hit both ways. The net result has been to widen the president's personal acquaintance and increase his already large personal popularity, but to leave his relation to the larger policies of the country about where it was.

That relation is one whose final test must be one of results, which will take time. This is not surprising, but to many who did not realize it in advance it is disappointing. Roosevelt realized it. His work, he knew, was that of agitation, and he himself stated, many times, to his intimates, that he was mentally and temperamentally incapable of the work of constructive legislative initiative which must follow. Many of the legal, scientific and economic problems which must be faced—he frankly did not understand, and did not have the intellectual patience to master. In this deficiency the public at large shared. Like Roosevelt, it deals with general principles and is impatient for summary results. The only process by which the permanent results can in fact be achieved is one of which Roosevelt pronounced himself incapable, and the American people do not enjoy.—Nevertheless, it must be gone through, and President Taft was picked by Roosevelt and by the people, for the somewhat uninspiring task of doing it. When it is done we will welcome the results, and will probably give the president some fraction of the credit which he deserves for the accomplishment. Meantime, we chafe under the very necessity which we delegated him to meet.

One of the conditions of procuring legislative results is the maintenance of such peace as is honorably possible with the legislative body. The success of McKinley was in doing this and the failure of Cleveland was in failing to do it. Harrison partly failed in the same task and was to that extent a partial failure as president, though intellectually he was unquestionably the only president of distinguished ability we have had since Lincoln. Roosevelt totally failed in this part of his task, and realized the limits imposed on him by that failure, but his success with the people was so overwhelming that they were unconscious of what he knew to be a failure on the legislative side. Now Taft is laying the foundations for success, at the point which Roosevelt himself realized must next be met, and, frankly, the people do not like it. They do not trust the congress they have chosen to represent them, and they prefer a president who will fight it. Each district consciously chooses its representative for selfish reasons, and then expects the president to supply the unselfishness for the country at large. The people resent in a president that policy of frictionless "getting things" which they demand of their representatives. President Taft is probably right in following this policy; it is what we chose him for. But, popular as he is personally, this policy is unpopular.

Also, one consideration shows that Roosevelt himself was mistaken in assuming that the period of necessary agitation was over. While Roosevelt was agitating, the powers of evil kept down. Like other spirits, they are evidently more scared of noise than of anything else. Roosevelt underestimated the value of his own noise and overestimated the completeness of his victory. The associated villainies are popping up their heads, all unafraid. They are, to be sure, in danger of more bullets, than they were before, but they will take chances on that. The report of the gun scares down every head; the bullet knocks down only one. To be sure, the bullet keeps its head down; the noise has to be continuous. But, apparently, the noise is still needed, and Taft's failure to make it is a real and serious error. We need more agitating than we are likely to get.

Tested by final results, the reputations of the Taft administration will doubtless be safe for all time. But, just now, in the agitating period, this agitating trip must be conceded to have been a distinct success at only two points, a distinct failure at at least one, and a popular disappointment at most.

STANDARD HAS TO PAY JUDGMENTS

State of Texas Garnishees Debts Due It From Various Railway Lines.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 13.—The state has recovered nearly $200,000 from the railroads and other institutions indebted to the Standard Oil Company against which judgment was rendered over a year ago for violation of the anti-trust laws. The state has been unable to secure service on the Standard, but discovered that the Santa Fe road owed the company $62,000, the Southern Pacific $40,000 the Security Oil Company and the Navarro Refining Company $80,000, and the Texas and Pacific $28,000. The state secured garnishment on these funds and collected the money. It cost about $2,000 in detective fees to find out what money was due the Standard.

BOY POLICE OF COUNCIL BLUFFS

Hundreds of Small Officers Keep the Peace of Big City During Holiday Time.

In the city of Council Bluffs, Iowa, there is a unique organization known as the "Boy Police," composed, as its name indicates, entirely of boys, whose duty it is to preserve order among the lads of that city and to see that the "rising" generation does not become too boisterous in its fun. The young law officers act under the eyes and orders of the regular police department of the city, and have authority to make arrests when necessary to preserve order.

The size of the force fluctuates, at times decreasing until not a single member is on the roll, and at other times increasing until it reaches a strength of two hundred and fifty. This is the maximum number allowed to serve in the "Boy Police" force. The boys receive no pay for their work, but are recompensed solely by the prestige which accrues to them as guardians of the peace.

So greatly is the honor esteemed at holiday times, when the mind of Young America naturally turns to mischief, that anything from five hundred to fifteen hundred boys besiege the police headquarters, seeking appointments as "policemen." It is the greatest honor that can come to a Council Bluffs boy—to be made a policeman. Every grade of society is found among the applicants, from the street Arab to the son of a banker and railroad magnate, for practically every lad in Council Bluffs is a standing candidate for the "job" of a boy policeman.

The "Kid Police," as the force is popularly known, originated in the mind of Chief of Police Richmond, of Council Bluffs, and was more the result of an accident than of mature thought. It was an inspiration, however, that has worked wonders among the boys of Council Bluffs, and has been so successful in its object that it is being seriously considered by a number of other American cities.—Thomas P. Reynolds, in the November World Magazine.

WHAT ROBBIE WANTED TO KNOW

He asked so many questions that day that he finally wore out his mother's patience.

"Robert," she cried, "if you ask me another question I shall put you to bed without your supper."

Robert promptly asked another and was packed off to bed. Later his mother repented. After all, asking questions was the only way he could acquire knowledge: so she tiptoed upstairs, knelt beside Robert's bed, and told him she was sorry.

"Now, dear," she said, "if you want to ask one more question before you go to sleep, ask it now and I will try to answer."

Robert thought for a moment, then said, "Mother, how far can a cat spit?"—"Success Magazine."

THE SPIRITED.

Once more the college town rings out
With the raucous sound of the college shout,
And the peaceful natives are on the racks
As breke, ke kex, koax, koax,
Is yelled by night and is yelled by day,
And the barber poles are stolen away,
And they duck the freshman with grand huzzah,
And a deafening chorus of Siss, Boom, Ah!
And the football season begins to throb,
And the college spirit gets on the job!

Once more John Harvard lays down the law,
Once more three cheers for Old Nassau
Are cried with vociferous vim and will,
And the town policemen they almost kill,
And for pigskin heroes the class they comb,
And the freshman mournfully sighs for home.

Tho' there indeed, if he only knew,
The college spirit is working, too,
And that maddening burden of Rah! Rah! Rah!
Is raising the dickens with pa and ma!

Poor ma, in fact, tho' she'd scarce know how
To voice an articulate varsity wow,
Is tortured at night by a terrible dream
Of impending defeat for the football team,
And a vision is dangled before her eyes,
Of shattered ankles and broken thighs
While pa, with cost that he little recks,
Is showing his spirit by writing checks,
And trusting he never may go to jail
For God, for country, and for Yale!

Rickety, rickety, zing, zing, boom!
Let freshmen manfully meet their doom,
And for any old college in any old place,
Learn the honor and love that time can't efface,
That is voiced in the shouts at the football game
As, winning or losing, they shout just the same;
But far away from the bellowing crowd
There are other shouts that are just as loud,
And I prize much more than the yells of boys—
The college spirit that has no noise!
—New York Times.

THE WICKED CADDIE.

Among Mr. Carnegie's innumerable Scotch stories is one about a caddie of St. Andrews.

This caddie's wife—so Mr. Carnegie's story runs—was much troubled by her husband's loose way of life. He could never have a good day on the links but he must end it with a wet night at the tavern. So, to cure him, the woman lay in wait on the road one evening, dressed in a white sheet.

When her husband appeared she rose from behind a hedge, an awful white figure, with outspread arms.

"Who the de'il are you?" asked the intemperate caddie.

"I'm Auld Nickie," said the figure, in a hollow voice.

"Gie's a shake o' yer hand, then," said the tipsy caddie. "I'm married tae a sister o' yours. She'll be waitin' for us up at the hoose, an' nae doot she'll mak' ye welcome."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SURCEASE OF SORROW.

A hundred years from now you will not care
How strong men may oppress the poor and weak;
You will not mourn because you may not share
The privileges that today you seek,
A hundred years from now you will not sigh
For pleasures that you have no right to claim;
You will not care for whom the banners fly,
Nor be concerned because of praise or blame!
A hundred years from now you'll have no spite,
Against the ones whom you have met in strife,
Nor will you steal home softly, late at night
To be cross-questioned by your waiting wife.

DIAZ MAY LIVE HUNDRED YEARS

Mexicans Will Not Think of His Retiring From the Presidency of Republic.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—13.—Frederick Upham Adams, novelist and magazine writer, after four months spent in a study of Mexico, is in this city. He is of the opinion that Diaz will remain president of Mexico "as long as he chooses."

"The fact that President Diaz is 80 years old counts for little," said Mr. Adams yesterday. "He is as sturdy and healthy as a well preserved man of 50, and there is no reason why he should not pass the century mark. I was unable to find any marked sentiment against him in any quarter. The middle and lower classes almost worship him and the men of affairs, native and foreign, would not listen to any suggestion that he retire from power."

Adams asserts that the experiment of the national ownership and operation of railroads has proved a decided success. The government properties are in excellent physical condition, fast schedules are maintained, accidents are almost unknown and, most significant of all, the profits of the last year show a remarkable increase over any equal period of private ownership.

OH, ABUSED WOMAN.

If you have ceased to be in love, they call you inconstant.

If you don't know whom you love, or whether you love at all, they call you fickle.

If you don't choose to love at all, they call you indifferent.

If you love anyone else but the one they want you to love, they call you false, and only when you give yourself to him whom they think you ought to love are you called loyal.

Yours is a hard lot indeed, O woman.

It is not necessary nowadays for a brainy woman to advertise her cleverness by wearing her belt badly.

Above everything else in the world a woman admires moral courage in a man, but her knowledge of anatomy is so hazy that she thinks broad shoulders or big biceps may be the seat of the moral virtues.

When a woman turns over the leaves of a book of love she never places a book-mark in it, but rather enjoys beginning anew each time.

A woman can manage to keep her love a secret, but never her hate.

Nothing is more painful to a woman than when she reaches the conclusion that she is no longer dangerous.

Men continually study women, and know nothing about them; women never study men, and know them all.—Smart Set.

GRANDEST VIEW IN THE ALPS.

Do you wish to enjoy one of the most famous views in the Alps? Climb, then, to a height of some six thousand feet up the Flegere and look across the Chamonix Valley in the direction of the Mer de Glace and its snow-crested bounding peaks. Born from the confluence of three glaciers—the Tacul, the Leschaux, and the Talefre—the great ice-river, four and a half miles long, and at the widest part over a mile in breadth, rolls confusedly toward the valley. To the left of the ice-river tower the Aiguilles Verte, du Dru, and a Bochard; to the right the splintered spires of the Grands Charmoz. Just overlooking it on the right, at no great height above the scraes, is the Montanvert (six thousand two hundred and fifty-seven feet), an eminence which rises some three thousand feet above Les Praz town village in the valley beneath. If you look steadfastly in the direction of the Montanvert, you will manage to descry the well-known hotel on the terrace beside which the pilgrims of pleasure flock in such numbers during the summer season.—E. Douglas Fawcett, in the November Strand Magazine.

THE RANDYVOO

We see thim thrailin' in and out wid
niver wanst a shmile
At Fairy Thorn or buddin' May that's scentin' many a mile;
I see thim streelin' in and out wid salt
tears on their face,
For yon's the Acre av the Dead and thought a dourish place,
Wid gravestones thick as barley tops and yews forninst the wall,
Where skylarks soar and sing so mad, and matin' cuckoos call.

And dark it is, in faith, to thim who hold the place in dread,
And dour enough it still may be for thim who know their dead:
But, och, for me 'tis still the home av
ivy-ry singin' lark
And ivry note and hawthorn scent tha steals across the dark;
For wanst, where black between the stones the yew tree shadows hung,
I found and knew my first love's kiss, when all the world was young.
—Arthur Stringer in Smith Set.

JAPANESE MUSICIANS.

The Shakuhachi players of Japan are a privileged class of itinerant musicians. Their instrument, a kind of reed oboe, enjoys what is, perhaps, a unique distinction, it having been adopted as a unit of measurement, a sixth of a sen, or about two feet. A peculiar head-dress, something like an immense "peach basket" hat serves as a cool variety of mask, permitting the wearer to go without being seen—a decided advantage to such people as have "come down in the world" and, joining the Players' Union, are undergirds of publicity. It also serves as a further distinctive feature of this class of musician to those who do not read the descriptive matter which is hung in front of each player.—November Wide World Magazine.

JEST LAZY.

Some folks they say they're tired to death,
They jest can't drag around:
They jest would like to give it up
An' lie down on the ground.
They are so awful, awful tired
They don't know what to do;
An' thus they say, day after day,
The same old thing to you.

Some say the weather makes 'em tired
It is so dry an' hot;
Some say it is the work they do,
An' cavil at their lot.
At any rate they git so tired
Ere night has come around
They jest would like to give it up
An' lie down on the ground.

Now, I hev jest sech feelin's too,
Don't want to move a peg;
A kinky, all-gone feelin' in
My body, arm, and leg.
Don't wanter hoe, nor chop, nor fish,
Don't wanter creep nor crawl;
But I'll be honest, folks, I'm jest
Dern lazy, that is all!
—Boston Herald.

YIELD OF ONE KERNEL OF WHEAT.

Eleven ounces of wheat for one kernel is the record for the season in this valley. The single grain of wheat was planted in a flower bed that belongs to and is attended by Mrs. S. Aplet. Scarcely any attention was paid to it until after it had grown more than a foot in height.

She did not molest it, however, and not until it began to head out did her curiosity lead to investigation. Mrs. Aplet discovered that there were 119 heads in the bunch. When threshed out and weighed at the Stanton pharmacy there was found to be eleven ounces of wheat.—Stayton Correspondence Oregon Journal.

GOVERNMENT MINDING ITS OWN BUSINESS IN POLAR CONTROVERSY

The State Deparement, through Assistant Secretary Wilson, has done a very nice piece of work in refusing to become embroiled in the noise in north pole squabble. A few scientists, wishing to constitute themselves umpires of the Cook-Peary dispute, are understood to have approached the department in an attempt to enlist its support in inducing the University of Copenhagen to surrender its right to examine the Cook records, or at least to permit the officious American scientists to be present at the examination. The scientific log rollers were courteously informed that the department did not care to be used as a convenience in their operations.

The government has no possible interest in the squabble between alleged pole finders and their partisans. It might with propriety direct the attention of a few overzealous scientists on its pay roll to their official duties, as being paramount to their self-appointed task of umpiring the Cook-Peary quarrel. Possibly the duties of these functionaries include the task of serving upon pompous polar commissions, whose decisions upon pemmican, open leads, blubber, and blurred observations must be accepted as final and binding upon the groveling and besotted proletariat. Possibly so; but why should the entire government be dragged in? If it is the duty of these scientists now on the government pay roll to settle this controversy, why don't they go ahead and settle it? And if it is not in the line of their duty, why are they wasting the government's time in fooling with it?

As for the second request sent by these bureau officials to the University of Copenhagen, they would be properly answered if the Copenhagen authorities should invite them to retire to a place warmer than the pole. They were courteously snubbed once. What more do they want? Must they insist upon being kicked downstairs?

However, the whole matter is trifling so long as responsible officers perceive the propriety of making the government mind its own business.—Washington Post.

JUDGE GAYNOR'S OPPORTUNITY AS MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY

Fortune has come to William J. Gaynor with both hands full, and afforded him opportunity to show whether he is a giant or a pygmy. She came to Samuel J. Tilden in the same mood, and with the same rich gifts; and he had the genius and character to smite Tweedism and make a felon of it. In 1875 he struck the canal ring "up state," and it withered. These reforms—real, not sham—made him his party's candidate for president in 1876, and nearly everybody now concedes that he was elected to that highest dignity.

Suppose Judge Gaynor, as mayor, should not only give New York an honest administration, compelling honesty in the remotest ramification of it, but that he should unearth, expose, prosecute, and gibbet graft, so lately secure, defiant, and triumphant—suppose he does that; he will be nominee of his party for president in 1912 by sheer force of circumstance.

Should he do these great things, and thus be nominated, he may be defeated by his Republican adversary; but he will have set his party on its legs and put it in the middle of the big road, and that is a job for Hercules. When the elder Bennett, of the New York Herald, read of the surrender at Sedan, it nearly broke his heart; but, gettin- cheer, he said, "What France needs is a man." And so the Democratic party. What it needs is a man; a real man, and not a sham; one who does things, rather than one that says things.

They say he has no manners. Neither had Cromwell; neither had Wellington; neither had Bismarck; neither had Maj. Gen. Andy Jackson, and our own Teddy Roosevelt can use the short and ugly. Statesmanship and deportment do not always yoke together. Abraham Lincoln could not have endured Turveydrop.

But Gaynor must first do that New York job up brown.—Washington Post.

RAILROAD RECEIVES CONSCIENCE MONEY

Letters from two conscience-stricken former passengers of the Clover Leaf railroad were found yesterday in the morning mail of General Passenger Agent George J. Charlton. One writer on stationery of the Moody Bible Institute, inclosed a money order for $25, and wrote:

"During the past, in a wild period of my life, I have stolen rides over your road and now want to pay for them. Since that time I have accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior; in other words, I am right with God and my fellow-men."

The other letter came from Wyandotte, Mich., and inclosed $2.35 in stamps, which, the writer said, is "the amount you refunded me in 1908 on a ticket which I claimed was unused."

"We get a good many conscience letters," said Mr. Charlton, "but seldom two in one mail."—Chicago Tribune.

A WOMAN GOLD DIGGER

Lady Sybil Grey is the latest distinguished gold digger. She accompanied her father, Earl Grey, governor general of the Dominion, on his recent trip to the Canadian arctic gold fields. Near Dawson City, the capital of the Klondike, she pegged out a claim for herself with all the prescribed legal formalities and christened it the Sybil.

Her first panning out produced $20 worth of gold, which she considers a very promising start. During the long arctic winter Lady Sybil will work her claim by deputy, but she says she will return next summer to supervise operations and examine results in person.—Westminster Gazette.

"WHISKY IS BAD FOR THE VOICE," SAYS CARUSO

"I wonder," says Caruso in the November Strand, "how many times during the last few years I have been asked whether I consider intoxicants are injurious to a singer's well-being! Certainly, hundreds, and probably thousands. In Italy we habitually drink the light wines of the country with our meals, and surely are never the worse for it. But really here again it is impossible to give advice generally, for so much depends upon the individual, though I would mention that I am inclined to condemn the use of spirits, whisky in particular, for it is sure to inflame the delicate little ribbons of tissue which produce the singing tone, and then—addio to a clear and ringing high C."

IMPORTANCE OF TH ECACHE.

Men whose business takes them into the wilds have to be very careful about their supplies. It is of vital necessity that they should be able to obtain provisions when required, and that these should not be too far away. The Canadian Dominion Government surveyors, who were running a fourteenth base-line, located a "cache" on the McLeodr iver, a tributary of the Athabasca. The supplies were taken in during the winter, when the swamps were frozen, and placed on ap latform solidly built of logs, about ten feet above the ground, so as to be out of the reach of bears and other animals. The depredations of hungry animals who have destroyed "enches" which their unfortunate makers thought secure have resulted in more than one tragedy by starvation in these trackless wilds.—November Wide World Magazine.

Purity Flour the Best of all Flours and Good Reasons Why

there are flours on the market that are blended with lower grades and then treated with chemicals to make them LOOK nice.

YOU KNOW
that these flours frequently contain as high as 20 per cent of such inferior grades, reducing the cost from 10c to 20c per barrel.

YOU KNOW
that bread or biscuits made from such flour has a flat, insipid taste—like a water cracker, and with just as much nourishment in it.

YOU KNOW
this is because the flour is bleached with chemicals so hard that all its virgin strength and flavor has been killed, and there is nothing left but lifeless gluten, on which your yeast has no effect. IT TAKES LIVE GLUTEN TO MAKE BREAD.

PURITY FLOUR LEADS

YOU KNOW
that bread or biscuits made from HONEST FLOUR has a creamy appearance and a nutlike flavor that you cannot get by using the other kind. A bluish white or leaden color is conclusive evidence of bleaching with chemicals. You DON'T KNOW how it's done, but that brain and muscle and nerve force are the product of HONEST FOOD. Bleached flour is NOT in that class.

WE ALL KNOW that nothing can equal the fluffy, flaky, flecey bread or biscuit made from flour prepared as nature intended it should be.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12. The following maximum and [illegible] temperatures are reported from Eastern stations for previous day:

Chicago 32-46. New York [illegible], Omaha [illegible].

Forecast, San Joaquin valley: Fair on Saturday with frost in the morning; light north wind.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Heavy rain has fallen in the central Mississippi valley, St. [illegible] reporting 1.82 inches. Less amounts are reported from the lake region and westward to the Rocky mountains.

Rain fell yesterday in the San Joaquin valley and on the Southern California coast as the result of a disturbance which is now central in the vicinity of Western Texas. The rapid passage of this storm, in connection with the high pressure now prevailing to the northward caused a rapid fall in temperature and heavy frost occurred in Fresno and the neighboring country this morning.

The pressure distribution indicates fair weather for Fresno and vicinity tonight and Saturday probably with somewhat higher temperature tonight but sufficiently low to give light frost.

W. L. FULLER, Local Forecaster.

Social and Club News

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Taylor entertained a congenial company of friends at dinner last night, the second of a series which this host and hostess are giving in their new home on Forthcamp avenue, which is a model of comfort and artistic beauty.

The big round table laid in the pretty dining room was more than attractive in its handsome white and gold service and delicate color scheme of pink in the decorations. In the center was a large cut-glass bowl filled with bridesmaid roses and about the center piece were placed pink shaded candles held in crystal sconces that shed a rosy radiance over the gleaming silver and china.

Places were marked by gold monogramed cards bearing the names of the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Eden, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs F. J. Haber, Mr. and Mrs. W. Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Boles, Mrs. W. B. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will entertain at another dinner next Thursday evening.

At the Parlor Lecture Club hall this afternoon the members of the Fresno Musical Club will gather to listen to a varied program presented by club members. As there are several new members to make their debut this afternoon the affair is of particular interest to the club. The program reads as follows:

Violin—Hungarian Dance (No. 5)... ..... Johannes Brahms
Miss Grace Osburn.

Song—
a—Memory ..... W. H. Neidlinger
b—Malden's Song .. Meyer Helmund
c—Roses After Rain, Liza Lehmann
d—At Parting .... James H. Rogers
Miss Maud Hohmann.

Cello—
a—Air ..... M. Mozskowski
b—Album blatt ..... J. Lou
Mrs. H. J. Pollard.

Piano—
a—Impromptu, Op. 29 ..... Chopin
b—On the Mountains ..... Grieg
Miss Martha Harris.

Vocal quartet— Arlon Waltz Song.. ..... F. Vogel
Mesdames Powell, Dearing, Manheim, Wahlberg, Connelly, Crawford, Misses Cory and Marshall.

While the home day concerts are of the greatest interest to the club, the chief interest of the members centers about the artists who appear before the club during the year at frequent intervals. George Hamlin, the renowned tenor ranking with the greatest favorites on the musical stage today, will appear before the club on the evening of November 26th. Engagements are also pending with Fritz Kreissler, the eminent violinist, and with Madame Langendorff, the noted German contralto, who has achieved fame on two continents.

Club members are asked to take note of the fact that this is the last opportunity of paying the year's dues. After today the additional entrance fee will be attached to the dues.

NEWMAN-FOLTZ CO. TO PLAY "THE DEVIL"

The Company Completes Its Engagement Tomorrow Night—Other Attractions.

Possibly one of the greatest successes of modern times is the satiri- Dev- Jeq cal comedy-drama, entitled "The Devil," which will be presented by the Newman-Foltz company at the Barton tonight.

The story, while not a new one, is told in a very novel manner, the character drawing is excellent; the husband a modern man of business; the lover an emotional poetic dreamer; the wife a sentimental woman of society, all faithfully drawn types of modern high society.

The part of "The Devil," a cynical man of modern culture and learning by perverted philosophy, biting sarcasm and brilliant wit, stands forth as great a piece of character creation as Mephistopheles in "Faust." Walter Newman has received some very flattering criticism on his portrayal of this difficult part, and his performance has been favorably compared with the actors who made this play famous. Miss Foltz will be seen as Olga, the wife, and the rest of this good company lends excellent support.

The play will receive a very fine production on the roomy stage at the Barton in the way of scenery and electrical effects.

This afternoon "Dora Thorne" will be presented at the matinee, and children will be admitted to any seat in the house for 10 cents. "Dora Thorne" was enjoyed very much by a large crowd last Thursday evening, and will no doubt pack the theater this afternoon. Tomorrow evening, for the farewell performance, "The American" will be presented. Seats are on sale all day, prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY."

The pioneer of melodramas, "In Old Kentucky," although not in the first blush of youth any more, has little reason to fear for its laurels—for its record achieved years ago has been upheld consistently by it season after season, until it has now reached the seventeenth year of its phenomenal success, and bids fair to run on for as many more years. Produced originally in 1892, it has been presented each season since then, and its sway over the play-goer is as completed today as ever before. Litt & Dingwall, the managers of "In Old Kentucky," haveal ways maintained a high standard of excellence in cast and production, and have never offered an unworthy or indifferent performance of the play. To this fact, no doubt, is due some measure of its wonderful success. Last season, despite the general business depression, was one of "In Old Kentucky's" banner years, and the attraction did not feel the effect of the dull times in the show world as did many of the newer attractions of popular reputation. No one who has ever seen "In Old Kentucky" can ever forget the little pickaninnies. They are an integral part of the drama, and their music, dancing, singing and boyish capers have done much to endear the play in the hearts of playgoers everywhere. After all is said, "the play's the thing" with the masses, and the name of "In Old Kentucky" has gone down in theatrical history. A fine and capable company will be seen here in the piece, which is announced for presentation at the Barton next Tuesday evening. The seat sale opens this morning.

"THE SOUL KISS."

A novelty-filled musical comedy is "The Soul Kiss," which will make its initial appearance in this city at the Barton next Tuesday evening. Unlike many other musical comedies, "The Soul Kiss" does not depend upon one number or novelty alone to insure its success, but from the rise of the first curtain to the finale of the last act, it is filled to the brim with overflowing comedy lines and situations, startling novelties, and pleasing melodies. Too much cannot be said in praise of the beautiful and finished music of Composer Maurice Levi. The entrancing melodies throughout the piece are strikingly well-fitted to the cleverl yrics of Harry B. Smith, and such song numbers as "When the Swallows Return in the Spring," "That Wasn't All," "Affinity," "Let's Pretend," "The Human Night-Key," "Very Well Then," "yAnOth m m Well Then," "Any Old Place in the World With You," and "My Diabolo Beau," are bound to be whistled by all the theater-goers. "The Soul Kiss" is filled with novelties which in themselves are enough to make it popular. The cast is headed by Mlle. Pertina, a sensational Parisienne danseuse, who has been brought from Paris to appear in the principal role of "The Dancer." A competent supporting company of 75 fun-makers has been provided for, each member of which handles his or her role in a very efficient manner. So, altogether, "The Soul Kiss" has everything in its favor for a successful engagement in this city.

PRISONER FINDS NEW JAIL READY

Last Time He Escaped Sentence Because Madera Had No Place to Put Him.

MODESTO, Nov. 12.—Pedro Correon, a six months' suspended sentence for the larceny of a pair of gloves, broke into jail this morning. He escaped the six months' sentence because at the time the jail was unfinished and there was no accommodations for prisoners. He came into court and tried to escape recognition under the assumed name of Rios, but the eagle eyed judge tripped him up and Correon confessed. He was sent to the new jail to spend the six months' sentence.

The Shakespeare club will have a session at the home of Mrs. W. C. Maze tomorrow afternoon at which the second and third acts of King Lear will be discussed. Mrs. Miller of Fresno will be present.

W. H. Christmas, a real estate man of San Jose, left for his home this morning. He is interested in Madera county lands.

Seton Horen, who was held to answer on a charge of larceny with prior convictions, was arraigned in Judge Carley's court this morning. He was represented by George W. Mordecai Jr. and pleaded not guilty to the charge of petty larceny but entered a plea of guilty to the prior conviction charge. His case was continued by stipulation until December 9th, when it will be set for trial.

Constable Lewis, who went to Berenda to arrest three men charged with trespassing on the Churchill ranch, returned without the men, as he was unable to identify them. He will wait for the arrival of complaining witness, E. Jackman who will identify the men.

The ladies of the U. D. C. opened their Chrysanthemum fete in Addetic hall this afternoon. There were a great many exhibits of the pretty flowers and many visitors. The fete will close tonight. During the afternoon refreshments were served in prettily decorated booths. Everything points to a successful fete as the blooms are numerous and beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sayre were passengers to Fresno today.

Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD WEEK OF PRAYER

Work of Association in Foreign Countries to Come Up for Consideration.

Beginning tomorrow there will be observed in the Young Woman's Christian Association a week of prayer which is being observed all over the world during the coming week. At half past 4 o'clock each day there will be half hour prayer meetings under different leaders. The work of the association in foreign countries will be taken up and it is hoped that there will be a broader interest shown in the general work through these meetings.

Sunday's service at half past 4 o'clock is to be an especially interesting one under the direction of Mrs. R. B. Cockrill. It will be a Japanese afternoon. California should be especially interested in the Y. W. C. A. work in Japan for it is California that supports the secretary of the work in Tokio and that secretary is Miss Margaret Mathews, a California girl and a graduate of the state university. There is a large student work carried on in Japan and a very important work it is. Miss Houston will speak of this work in Japan on Sunday afternoon, there will be Japanese songs, a talk by a little Japanese girl in costume and several other little maids will serve tea after the service.

Interest in the contest is waxing warm. The two sides are running very evenly and there is the keenest sort of rivalry between the red and the white roses. Preparations are being made for a big rally shortly to further stimulate interest in this membership contest.

PRAISE FOR LOCAL SAVINGS BANKS

No Need of a Commission, If All in the State Were as Good as Fresno's.

"If all the savings banks in the state were in as good condition as those in Fresno, there would be no need for a state board of bank commissioners."

This is what Commissioner Alden Anderson is reported to have said in banking circles yesterday, after an examination of the two principal savings institutions.

Mr. Anderson spent the larger part of yesterday in Fresno in an examination of the affairs of the four savings banks coming under the jurisdiction of the state board. In the afternoon he left northward for Los Banos.

The four banks that he visited were the People's Savings and the Central California and the two oriental concerns, that of the Kamikawa Brothers and the other the Industrial which recently was closed on his order. Regarding the latter he had nothing new to give out.

DRENTH PRESIDENT OF H. S. SENATE

At the regular weekly meeting of the Fresno High School Senate last night, officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows:

President—Drenth of Alabama.
Vice president—Hopkins of Wyoming.
Secretary—Harkness of Rhode Island.
Treasurer—Moore of North Carolina.
Librarian—Tufts of Idaho.
Sergeant-at-arms—Stewart of Washington.

The election was hotly contested. In the race for sergeant-at-arms, every member of the senate was nominated. Stewart won the honors.

FRESNO DELEGATES TO PROMOTION MEET

Fresno will be represented today at the meeting of the Counties Committee of the Promotion Club at Visalia by the following delegates credentialed by the Chamber of Commerce: M. F. Tarpey, D. D. Allison, William Robertson, Hayden Jones and Edwin Scott. At the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce the Realty Board named Jones and the Boosters' Club Scott.

OLD KING COAL

Old King Cole was a jolly old soul,
But not so merry as they
Who sit by their grate never filled with slate, singing:
December as pleasant as May.
Ask the consumer of the vague rumor
Of a coal that makes winter a myth,
He'll say it is true, and all honor due
To the gem sought of all, both great and small "American Block."

Whence comes this coal can make a merry soul

Camp Out in the Forest.

PINE-LADEN ATMOSPHERE OF GREAT BENEFIT TO THOSE WHO HAVE CONSUMPTION.

Among the mighty pines of the Adirondack Mountains are hundreds, perhaps thousands, of consumptive people, who have returned to the primitive life of the early pioneer in an effort to recover health. They live in camps built of rough logs, and constantly inhale the fragrant pine-laden air, which has a soothing, healing effect upon the affected organs.

There is a peculiar virtue in pine which makes it a splendid remedy for coughs and colds and other affections of the throat and bronchial organs. This valuable medicinal property is present in the Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, which is a combination of the active principles of pine and santal album.

To break up a cold quickly there is nothing so effective as the mixture of two ounces of glycerine, a half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, and eight ounces of pure Whisky. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. The ingredients are not expensive and can easily be mixed at home in a large bottle. It makes enough to last the average family an entire year, and will cure any cough that is curable. If you have any difficulty in securing a pure medicinal Whisky, send forty cents to the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O., who manufacture the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, and they will see that you are supplied with a full half pint of pure, straight whisky by prepaid express.

1837 MARIPOSA STREET

CONSOLIDATED CAUGHT BY THEIR OWN FIGURES

Admit That at Time Two Cent Offer Was Made There Were Only 19,000 Tons of Unsold Raisins

That the Consolidated knew there were not 20,000 tons of unsold raisins in the field when they made their fake offer to pay 2 cents provided 20,000 tons were signed up was learned yesterday from figures which have been compiled by one of the Consolidated packers. According to these figures the total unsold tonnage at the time of the fake offer was but 19,000 tons and in order to have secured the necessary tonnage to grant a payment of 2 cents, would have necessitated the securing of more than the total of unsold raisins in the hands of the growers, which was a human impossibility.

The figures compiled by the packer follow, and are for the situation at the present time.

Sultanas out	3,000
Thompsons out	1,500
Controlled by Pike	6,000
Controlled by Giffen	8,000
In growers' hands	10,000

The 6000 tons secured by Pike were secured before the packers made their offer and the 8000 tons secured by Giffen were secured after. As the offer did not include Sultanas and Thompsons, the figures show that the total tonnage at the time the offer was made consisted of the tonnage now in the hands of Giffen and the tonnage now estimated by the packers to be in the hands of the growers, or a total of 19,000 tons.

Heretofore the packers have been handing out statements to the effect that there are at present 15,000 tons of unsold raisins, for the purpose of bearing the market. The figures of the Consolidated, which it has been learned were maximum figures, coincide the total to be not over 19,000 tons. L. F. Giffen still maintains that there are only about 5000 tons at present unsold and he is convinced that his figures are nearly correct.

In speaking yesterday of the figures which he prepared and sent out by circular letter to the Eastern trade, Giffen said:

"I have come to the conclusion that the figures which I gave out were almost nearly correct or else their authenticity would have been denied. No one has denied that the total crop was 60,000 tons. No one has denied that there were 15,000 tons of Sultanas, Thompson Seedless and others. No one has denied that at the time I commenced to buy, 20,000 tons had already been bought and sold. No one has denied that the amount controlled by the Selma Fruit Company is 2000 tons. No one has denied that the Armona Fruit Exchange controls 2000 tons, or that the Dried Fruit Agency controls 5000 tons. President Sorensen of the Farmers' Union will neither affirm or deny the statement that at present the union controls but 1000 tons, and, therefore, I take it that the figure is very close to that. I have about 9000 tons and that only leaves 6000 tons of unsold raisins, or the amount I claim now unsold."

A peculiar coincidence exists in comparing Giffen's figures with the figures of the Consolidated packer. Giffen figured that there were only 15,000 tons of raisins unsold at the time he commenced to buy and the packer at the most cannot make more than 19,000 tons unsold.

"If Gartenlaub said 20,000 tons of raisins were worth 2 cents a pound with the total unsold tonnage 30,000 tons, he could certainly see that with a smaller unsold tonnage raisins are worth more than 2 cents a pound.

"Gartenlaub is just three weeks behind me. He now says that raisins will not go below the 2-cent mark. I said that three weeks ago. I think Gartenlaub will agree fully with everything I have said by the time spring comes."

These statements were made yesterday by Giffen in speaking of Gartenlaub's statement the day before.

Regarding market conditions in the east, Giffen stated that at the present time packers were not making any more effort to bear the situation. "If they are they are having no effect whatever," he declared.

"I am selling freely at present and our goods are getting top prices on the market. In fact the prices are ranging higher than they have for some time," said Giffen.

After a little tilt with J. K. Armsby, Giffen yesterday secured the Gurtlesdian crop of thirty-five tons. Giffen first offered 2 cents for the crop, and then the Armsby people raised the bid to 2 1-2 cents, but failed to put up the necessary deposit. When the Armsby people thought they had the crop secure, Giffen came through with a 2 1-2 cent offer and put up the necessary deposit, thus insuring him the crop. The superior court granted it to him.

Whether or not the Consolidated is actually buying or not cannot be determined, but it is known that they at least have dummy buyers in the field who are securing all the options they can.

GIFFEN COMPANY HAS INCORPORATED

The L. F. Giffen Company, which suddenly blossomed out as a factor in the raisin market this year, has incorporated and filed articles yesterday afternoon as a general business association with authorized capital of $100,000 in 1000 shares and $25,400 subscribed. Directors are L. F. Giffen and E. J. Kee of Fresno and K. M. Lindstrom of Fowler, who subscribed to 225, 12 and 17 shares respectively.

KERMANITES FORM CREAMERY COMPANY

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday of the Kerman Creamery with $25,000 authorized capital in 2500 shares and $50 subscribed. Directors are Henry Wiese, N. E. Carnine, P. Bowdish, Wilfred Baker and Emil Jung, each holding one share.

BREAKS CAR WINDOW; GETS TERM IN JAIL

For hurling a handful of gravel and dirt through the window of a Santa Fe passenger coach, Joaquin Hernandez, a Mexican, was fined $10, with the alternative of ten days in the county jail, yesterday by Judge Graham. The defendant went to jail in default of the payment of the fine. Hernandez entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K 144 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power, on a you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

UNITARIAN PULPIT.

Do You Really Believe It?

Do you really believe that a man can live a mean, low, bestial life, and then at the end, by repentance and faith, have all that terrible score wiped out? When men talk about "Having their sins washed away in the blood of Jesus," what do they mean? What is meant by oft-repeated phrase, "laying our sins on Jesus?" No matter whether he was God or man, how does the death of Jesus 2000 years ago lift the load of guilt from a Fresnan today? Can penalty, in a righteous, law-governed universe, be transferred from the sinner to an innocent person? These are some of the questions I will discuss Sunday night, in my lecture on "Sin and Salvation," to be given in the Parlor Lecture Club hall, 1350 K street.

S.S.S. BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

There is no way to cure Catarrh except to purify the blood, and thus do away with the cause. The symptoms may be benefited by the use of washes, inhalations, sprays, medicated tobaccos, etc., and through the use of such treatment catarrh sufferers receive temporary relief and comfort. External and local measures however cannot have any effect on the blood, and therefore their use alone is of no real curative value. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and comes as the result of catarrhal matter and other impurities in the circulation. These morbid matters in the blood cause an inflammatory and irritated condition of the mucous membrane or tissue lining of the cavities of the body, producing an unhealthy secretion, ringing noises in the ears, stuffy feeling in the head and nose, headaches, hoarseness, bronchial affections, watery eyes, etc. S.S.S. is the best treatment for Catarrh because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. This medicine removes every particle of the catarrhal impurity from the circulation, making this vital fluid pure, fresh and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, because they are nourished with pure, healthgiving blood, every symptom disappears, and soon S.S.S. produces a perfect cure. S.S.S. does not contain any habit-forming drugs, which really never can cure Catarrh, but often ruin the health. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

PREPARING FOR GREAT CONGRESS

Delegates from Republics Will Gather at Buenos Aires During Next July.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The fourth of a series of great conferences that are steadily strengthening the bonds between the republics of the Western hemisphere is to be held in Beunos Aires, Argentine Republic, between the 15th and 20th of next July, and already the Argentine government, which is to be the host in this case, has been doing much to prepare for the meeting. The date, originally fixed for the Fourth International Conference of American States was May 20th, 1910, but the fact that a great exposition was to be held in the same capital in that month, which might overshadow the importance of the international conference, led to the postponement of the latter. Moreover, the month of July, being in the middle of the Argentine winter, is certain to make the visit to Beunos Aires more agreeable to the delegates from the North.

The Governing Board of the Bureau of American Republics already has dispatched to every South and Central American capital a tentative program of the subjects to be considered by the conference and the various foreign offices have been at work upon this with the purpose of submitting objections or suggesting amendments. Much progress has been made and it is hoped that it soon will be possible to promulgate the final program, which accordding to present indications will not vary considerably from that prepared by the Board of Governors.

SESSIONS EDUCATIONAL.

The three preceding conferences have moved along the lines of least resistance: that is to say, the delegates have adopted as basic principles such propositions as have secured the easy adhesion of the great majority, but no effort was made to coerce the minority of the states into acceptance of rules which, at first presentation, were obnoxious to them. Instead, when these were of real importance, they were thoroughly debated and then remanded for further consideration at the next conference. In this way the conferences have been made educational, and experience has shown that a sound proposition is almost certain to secure adhesion. So it happens that the tentative program includes some subjects that already have figured in the debates of the preceding conferences. Thus, for instance, will again come up the subject of compulsory arbitration. While the Hague conference accepted this in principle it declined to recommend a general treaty of arbitration, though strongly urging to the states represented the making of special treaties among themselves to carry out the idea. The United States already has done this with eleven of the other republics, and the subject will come before the fourth conference and receive further encouragement at the beginning of the proceedings, when each delegation will be required to report what action has been taken by their respective governments to carry out the wish of the third conference.

Another project broached at a preceding meeting which will be again threshed out will be the establishment of steam navigation lines connecting the principal ports of the American countries, on the basis of a uniform system of contract.

TO ADOPT INTERNATIONAL LAWS.

The Bureau of merican Republics is to be strengthened and continued for another ten-year term of life at the least and it is hoped that the commission of International Jurists will be able to report something in the nature of a code of international law that will be adopted for the government of the American Republics in their diplomatic relations. If this report is satisfactory the fourth conference will embody in a treaty this basic code, which is expected to have the happiest result in the settlement of any disturbing questions that may arise in the future between the republics.

The Pan-American railway; postal rates and parcels posts; a uniform system of collection of census and commercial statistics and consular methods; supervision of food supply; the protection of the public health, and the regulation of rates of international exchange are other matters left by preceding conferences for the consideration of that which is to meet at Beunos Aires.

Now and up-to-date subjects are wireless telegraphy and aerial navigation, for it has begun to be realized by the governing board that there soon will be need of regulations for the government of these new modes of communication and travel. An effort also will be made to arrive at some sound basis of regulation of foreign immigration and naturalization, and to define neutrality in time of war.

HARMONY TO PREVAIL.

The prospects for a successful conference are bright in the opinion of the officials of the Bureau of American Republics. One cloud that threatened was the breach of relations between Argentine and Bolivia. But it is believed that even if the efforts now making to re-establish these relations should prove abortive yet as the host, Argentine on this occasion would regard herself as the representative of all the American republics, and waiving all personal considerations, gracefully extend to Bolivia the invitation which would secure the attendance of her delegates to the conference.

CHURCH WORKER CONFESSED THIEF

Stole Buggies and Horses and Gambled Off Money Derived from Their Sale.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—A confession which the officers at the sheriff's office consider the most remarkable one that ever came to their notice was made today to Sheriff Hammill by Robert Perry, a young church worker and writer of sacred songs, who was arrested several days ago charged with the theft of a motorcycle.

Perry, in a written confession, now in the hands of Sheriff Hammill, confesses not only to the theft of the motorcycle, but also to the theft of eleven horses and buggies and says that all of the money he secured from the sale of the stolen rigs aggregating several thousand dollars has been spent at gambling.

Perry tells the sheriff in the document the probable whereabouts of one very valuable horse which he says he stole, and which the sheriff has been searching for for several weeks.

The remarkable confession ends with a prayer to God to aid the sheriff to recover the stolen property and return it to the rightful owners, and then says:

"And I pray, then when I come to the dark river, that, with Bryant," and here he quotes the lines beginning: "I go not like the quarry slave at night."

The young man has many friends in the Sunday school of which he was a member and a subscription was taken to raise the $1500 bail necessary to secure his release on the charge of stealing the motorcycle, but the sheriff told them they could not secure his release by raising ten times that sum, as there were too many charges against him.

Eastern Trade Review

NEW YORK, Nov. 12—Bradstreets tomorrow will say:

Continued mild weather is helpful to building and outdoor construction work and facilitates fall plowing and winter wheat growth but at the same time it is a source of considerable complaint as to its effect on retail trade in heavy dry goods and clothing, heavy wearing apparel, etc.

In other wholesale lines, however, reports are to a high degree favorable. Holiday demand is especially active and spring business is being booked in good volume except where as in cotton goods, high prices and uncertainty of future prices of raw material checks selling operations. The general tone of affairs commercial is buoyant.

Iron and steel production in all its forms is active, although the advance of the season favors a slackening of the pace shown. The automobile trade is behind on orders. Reports shown gains in building expenditures over the large totals of a year ago.

Commercial collections are good as a whole, though feeling the restriction of the retail demand noted above. Commodity prices are still inclined toward higher levels, and are now only a small percentage below the highest record levels.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending November 11 were 221 against 220 last week, 267 in the corresponding week of 1908; 259 in 1907; 222 in 1906, and 128 in 1905.

Wheat, including flour exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending November 11 aggregate 5,535,474 bushels against 5,387,455 last week, and 5,029,480 bushels this week last year. For the 19 weeks ending November 11, exports are 58,244,108 bushels against 81,775,775 in the corresponding period last year.

Corn exports for the week are 288,818 bushels against 304,995 last week, and 372,808 bushels in 1908.

For the 19 weeks ending November 11, corn exports are 3,294,456 bushels, against 2,371,510 last year.

BIG INCREASE IN WHEAT PRODUCTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—There has been an increase of nearly 300,000,000 bushels, or fully one-sixth, in the production of wheat recently harvested in six countries in the northern hemisphere, which in 1908 produced virtually two-thirds of the world's supply.

These countries embrace the United States, Canada, France, Hungary, Russia and Roumania and the figures are gathered from the latest estimate published of the production for each country.

After two years of unusually abundant yields, the world's production of hops this year, according to reliable trade estimates, will fall to a lower point than in any year since 1882.

Although improvement was noted in the prospects of the European sugar beet crop during the last month, the probable production during the coming season is still unofficially estimated to be considerably lower than in 1908-09.

TO BEGIN HEARING COAL LAND CASES

SEATTLE, Nov. 12.—Hearing of evidence in the famous Cunningham coal land cases in which the title to valuable lands in the Bering Lake country of Alaska is involved will be begun in the federal building in this city November 18. The lands are claimed by a score or more of the richest men in the Pacific Northeast. J. M. Sheridan of Denver represents the government. William J. McGee of the interior department, sitting as commissioner, will hear the testimony. Witnesses from all over the Pacific Northwest, including Alaska, will be present at the hearing, which will probably continue for a week. Then, it is expected, the commissioner will adjourn to take more testimony at Spokane.

ACQUIT MINING MAN OF MURDER

VALDEZ, Nov. 12.—Ralph Williams, a prominent mining man of Alaska, was acquitted today of the murder of Frank Dunn, formerly a road housekeeper at Susitna station. Williams pleaded self-defense.

The tragedy took place last winter. Williams had just arrived at Susitna from his mining property up the river and became involved in trouble with Dunn because the latter abused Mrs. Dunn. Williams finally left the road house, but was followed by Dunn and after a struggle Williams shot Dunn, killing him instantly. At the time of his death Dunn was under indictment for participation in what is known as the Lake Creek hanging.

SON IN GRAVE IS ACCUSED OF FRAUD

Pioneer Akers Sues Widow to Recover Property.

Judgment for $42,331 Given Against Urrutia on an Old Note.

A complaint filed yesterday in the Superior court by Attorney Crichton is predicated on a charge of fraud made by a venerable father against a son who is in his grave.

The complainant is Andersun Akers, a pioneer of the county, 80 years of age, who has lived in the White Creek country on the West Side for many years. The defendant is the Widow Katrina M. Akers in her individual capacity and also as executrix of the will of her husband, William Albertus Akers, who died on September 15, 1908. Judgment is asked by the old man that the writings spoken of in the case be declared void; that they be surrendered for cancellation and that the widow of his son make a reconveyance of the property to him.

Akers says under oath in his complaint that up to the 26th of April, 1907, he was the owner of three parcels of land in sections 20-19-13, 17 and 20-19-13, but being to old and infirm and wholly incompetent to attend to business matters the son procured from him two instruments in writing conveying ownership title to himself. Plaintiff Akers declares he has no recollection of ever having signed such deeds, never had any intention of parting with title and as a matter of fact never received any compensation for the land so claimed to have been deeded. He declares that if such papers exist they were obtained from him by fraudulently taking advantage of his age, infirmity and incapacity. The alleged writing, he says, is under seal conveying the property to the daughter-in-law as the devisee of his son and that she proposes to use it for her own benefit.

The Akers are of Coalinga and the probated will of W. A. Akers named as beneficiaries the widow and daughter, Lois, aged 11, also appointing Mrs. Akers as executrix. The petition for letters stated that the estate consisted of 347 acres of land in San Benito county valued at $1200, 753 in Fresno county, including largely pasture land, and a 160-acre homestead, worth $4000, besides personal property in cattle and horses of the further value of $6500.

BIG JUDGMENT AWARDED.

One of the largest judgments granted out of the Superior court here of late was the one awarded yesterday by Judge Church without contest by the defendants in the suit of Celeste M. Verges and Chincie A. Alferitz as administratrixes of the estate of George C. Alferitz against Antonio Urrutia, the well known sheep raiser and wool man. The judgment awarded was for $42,331.18 on a note for $30,000 due March 21, 1905, and on which only $3573 had been paid, $8758.18 of the judgment representing interest. As an attorney's fee and for costs $1250 was awarded to Lyman L. Mowry of San Francisco. Alferitz died at San Rafael, in Marin county, on May 15, 1909. The judgment also involves foreclosure of mortgage security on large West Side land holdings.

WANTS A HOMESTEAD.

Ida M. Varnell, as the widow of W. W. Varnell, has asked that twenty acres of the east half of northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of 5-19-21 be vested in her as a homestead as the surviving spouse. The property was acquired by joint efforts, but by inadvertancy and mistake they were named as grantees in the deed of conveyance, though neither had any separate property. Varnell died in May, 1907, and in November, 1903, the property was homesteaded by them.

OIL LAND PETITION.

Judgment as prayed for was granted by Judge Church in the suit of Pearl Meeker against the American Petroleum Company, partitioning to her a designated quarter portion of eighty acres of oil land in 30-20-15 previously agreed upon in guardianship proceedings in Kern county, the minor coming in for the interest as a legacy.

COURT NOTES.

Margaret Scales asks for letters in the estate of Frederick B. Frisbie, who died at Selma on the 7th ult. The property consists of a half interest valued at $800 in lots 30 and 31 in block 5 of Arrant's addition to Selma. The petitioner is the mother of the deceased and the only known heir, as she is also the next of kin.

George H. Hawn, defendant in the divorce case of Bertha L. Hawn, has been enjoined from selling, disposing of or encumbering any of the community property and thus deprive her of her just rights in it.

Complaint for divorce on the ground of desertion has been filed by Argie Piechl against Joseph Piechl.

FIRST SUIT BASED ON 1909 VINTAGE

Giffen & Co. Buy Raisins in Court at 2 1-2 Cents.

Long Cattle Stealing Case Will Be Submitted This Forenoon.

The first suit at law growing out of the 1909 vintage bobbed up yesterday in an action by Mrs. E. L. Gunn against A. Bronge to recover total of $693.34. She says that Bronge on the 6th of last August purchased the crop of Malaga grapes on her Home Vineyard, agreeing to pick and deliver and pay $2500 for the first 114 tons and $22 for every ton in excess. The lady says 301,849 pounds of Malagas were picked for which she was paid $2500. The excess quantity picked and removed was 75,849 pounds on which $812.35 was due and only $422.34 paid, leaving $390.01 still due.

She further says that Bronge hired from her a wagon and team at an agreed $1 a day and there is unpaid on that claim $13.33 for 3 1-3 days use of vehicle and animals.

She further says that after Bronge had paid her $2922.34 in all he refused to pack any more grapes and so she picked 10 tons which she sent to the winery at $5 per ton. She avers that the cost of picking was $2 and of hauling $1 per ton, leaving a profit of $2, and she asks for damages for $20 loss of profits had Bronge lived up to his contract.

RAISINS AT 2½ CENTS

L. F. Giffen & Co., the raisin price boomers, have on the final show down, snatched out of the hands of J. K. Armsby & Co. the 35 tons of held over raisins belonging to the estate of the murdered Mugerditch Gurabedian. They will pay 2½ cents a pound straight for the 35 tons and at that price Judge Church finally confirmed the sale yesterday. The bidding in court by the rival firms for this small lot of raisins was interesting.

The administrator originally reported a sale at 2 cents per pound, with an allowance of 75 cents per ton for hauling to the packing house. When it came to confirm the sale in court, Armsby & Co. raised on the Giffen one half cent, at any rate made the offer. The buyer made no deposit though of 5 per cent, and any how as stated the 2½ cents offer was not a flat one but conditional that the lot should average a proportion of buyers.

Nothing having been done to bind the offer with a deposit, the order confirming the Armsby offer was revoked yesterday and the raisins went to Griffen & Co. at 2½ cents delivered at the packing house with payment on completion of deliveries.

GOES TO JURY TODAY

The case of C. W. Long on trial for the second time for the alleged larceny of 3 head of cattle with James N. Walker Jr. from the ranch near Lone's bridge in Madera county of the latter's father, the pioneer sheriff, will go to the jury this forenoon with the close of the final arguments. District Attorney Church made the opening argument, followed by D. T. Winne for the accused. Miles Walker had not proceeded long in closing for the defendant when interrupted by the adjournment hour for the day.

At the close of the prosecution's testimony yesterday, a motion was made to dismiss the charge because the testimony of young Walker as state's evidence was not corroborated as to facts of other than the mere recital of the compulsion of a crime, also to strike out for the same reason all the testimony of the young fellow, both motions were denied.

The defendant did not take the witness stand. The testimony of the witnesses for the defense was largely in denial of statements made and incidents related connecting Long and young Walker with the cattle rustling episode. A page from a calendar for the month of September, 1908, was introduced to disprove testimony of the prosecution given by Walker that the moon was up at 8 o'clock on the night of the theft, whereas the calendar showed that it did not rise until midnight.

NEW BATTLESHIP SHOWS ITS "CLASS"

QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 12.—Official figures made public today indicate that the new battleship North Dakota is in a class by herself so far as steaming radius is concerned.

The figures compiled on her official endurance trials show that the North Dakota, steaming at an average speed of twelve nautical miles an hour, is able to travel 9000 knots without recoiling.

At a nineteen-knot speed the big ship will be able to steam 4000 knots without replenishing her bunkers, while she will also be able to cover 3000 knots without recoiling when steaming at her maximum speed of twenty-one and a half knots an hour.

HEAVY RAINFALL MAY CAUSE DAMAGE

COLON, Nov. 12.—Heavy rains have fallen here since Wednesday night, the total precipitation up to noon today being nine inches. Yesterday six inches of rain fell.

The cable to Bull Bay, Jamaica, apparently is intact and it is assumed the operators are unable to reach the cable house, which probably is isolated by the storm.

LAWSHE TO MAKE NEW MEXICO HOME

EL PASO, Nov. 12.—Belief that Third Assistant Postmaster General A. L. Lawshe will be named by President Taft as governor of New Mexico has been strengthened by Mr. Lawshe's action in taking up his residence in Las Cruces, N. NO JURY YET TO TRY ALMA BELL

Another Special Venire Exhausted and the Elisor Is Sent After More Talesmen.

AUBURN, Cal., Nov. 12.—Twelve talesmen were examined in the Alma Bell murder trial today, two being passed subject to peremptory challenge. This exhausted the special venire summoned yesterday and the two elisors were sent out to summon another venire of twenty-five. There now are five men in the jury box subject to peremptories, which will be exercised when another juror is passed temporarily.

Thus far ninety talesmen have been examined and only six sworn to try the case.

TAFT PRESENT AT COLLEGE CEREMONY

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 12.—President Taft arrived here from New Haven today to attend the installation of Dr. William Arnold Shanklin, as president of Wesleyan University.

At the installation, President Taft's address, which he delivered extemporaneously, came next to last on the long program. Educators, university and college professors from all sections of the country attended.

The degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon President Taft, Vice President Sherman, Senator Root, Elmer Brown, United States Minister of Education; Bishop William Burt of the Methodist Episcopal church, and Dean Samuel Hart of Berkeley divinity school.

JAPANESE DELEGATES ON WAY TO WEST

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—The honorary commercial commissioners from Japan passed today in Kansas City, following a drive through the city as guests of the Commercial Club, the visitors inspected a packing house and several factories in the West Bottoms.

They also visited the Westport high school, where Baron Kansa delivered a short address.

DEPOSED TREASURER IS PHYSICAL WRECK

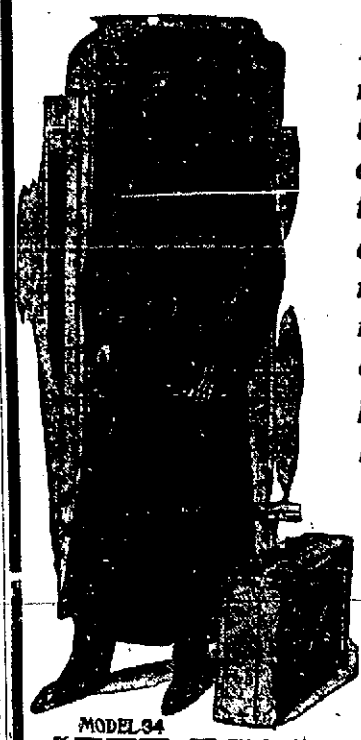

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12—Charles L. Warriner, deposed local treasurer, charged with the shortage of $643,000 in his accounts with the Big Four railroad, is nearly a physical wreck his friends said today.

Big Four officials expressed the belief that there would be no more important developments in the big defalcation so far as the Cincinnati officers were concerned.

SEES SIGNAL LIGHTS, HEARS LIBERTY BELLS

J. M. Dempsey, an Unfortunate, Is Committed to the Stockton Asylum.

J. M. Dempsey, a well known character about town, was in a straight jacket yesterday and had to be handled by three deputy sheriffs, so violent was he when he appeared before Drs. Miller and Barr for examination as to his mental condition. He was adjudged insane and ordered committed to the asylum at Stockton.

Dempsey is physically undersized, but is a stalwart in muscular strength, as the three deputies learned. He is a laborer and aged 38 years. He has a wife, Vena Dempsey, and a child living in Madera. She is employed as a chambermaid in the Yosemite hotel. The Dempseys have lived apart for six or more years.

Dempsey has been complaining particularly that mail matter addressed to him in the jail has not been delivered, and he imagines that he is being pursued and annoyed by various persons. His tendency is suicidal, for it was stated that he has been cutting his wrists to bleed to death and that therefore it is dangerous for him to be at large and free from watchful restraint.

He has delusions such as that he is in communication with God; that he sees signal lights from heaven and hears liberty bells tolling and that he has a secret mission to fulfill on earth. Another delusion is that M. F. Tarpey has made him a litigator and has sequestered property in bank in trust for him.

SOLDIERS RETURN FROM PHILIPPINES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The U. S. transport Logan arrived today from the Philippines with the Eighteenth infantry on board. Besides the officers the Logan brought 795 enlisted men and a large number of casuals. The troops are commanded by Colonel Thomas F. Davis. From here the headquarters band of the Eighteenth and the Second and Third battalions of the regiment will proceed to Fort Mackenzie, Wyo., and the First battalion will go to Whipple barracks, Arizona.

PRISONER GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

RED BLUFF, Cal., Nov. 12—After being out all night the jury in case of John Lowry, charged with the killing of "Scotty" McIntosh by kicking him to death in the jail here, where both were confined for minor offenses, returned a verdict of manslaughter today.

REFUSES TO MARRY AND IS KILLED

DETROIT, Nov. 12.—Samuel F. Morley, farm manager of a large estate on Bloomfield Hills near here died today from being shot, according to his dying story, by Miss Bertha Lietzay. The woman wanted to marry him, Morley said, and shot him because he refused her. Miss Lietzay, who was the cook at the farm, is in jail.

Anty Drudge Gives the Conductor Pointers.

Conductor—"Beg pardon, ma'am, for dropping the nickel; I'll get it for you right away. Those gloves make my hands so clumsy, but if I didn't wear them my hands would be as dirty as my linen. What with handling money, and the pushing and shoving, my things get so dirty, my wife doesn't like to wash 'em."

Anty Drudge—"Well, that's a sad state of affairs. Get her to try Fels-Naptha and she shall complain no more about washing your clothes. No backaches from Fels-Naptha, or hard work either. Your wife can do a day's washing before noon if she uses it."

When Fels-Naptha soap is used the hanging out is the hardest part of the washing

No boiling, either winter or summer.

No fire to keep red hot; no tiring and tedious rub-a-dub on the washboard.

Fels-Naptha itself does the hardest part of the washday work—loosening the dirt.

All the human aid necessary is a few rubs, a quick rinsing and the clothes are ready for wringing.

Out they go on the line, sweeter and whiter than if a whole day were spent trying to grind out the dirt on a washboard.

COALINGA EXPECTS 200 EXCURSIONISTS

Plans for Visit of Southern Oil Men.

Governor Gillett Will Probably Be Oil Town Guest on Same Day.

COALINGA, Nov. 12.—Coalinga expects at least 200 excursionists from Los Angeles on the 26th of this month, and an effort will be made to have Governor Gillett visit the oil town on that day also. The governor is expected on the 29th and it is thought may be able to come three days earlier. It is announced that 101 reservations have already been made in the Southern city and the Stock Exchange is expected to double the number.

Thomas O'Donnell, manager of the American Petroleum in this city, has been very active in Los Angeles in getting the southerners to come here. He brought the matter up at a dinner in the Sierra Madre Club and induced about forty members of the club to come. He then visited the stock and oil exchanges and was given assurances that they could be relied upon to join the crowd. Bankers, merchants and professional men were interviewed and more than a hundred of the solid and substantial people of that city were anxious to make the trip. Captain Lacey was with Mr. O'Donnell. Mr. O'Donnell asks that every possessor of an automobile place his machine at the servic of the committee during the day of the visit and have each numbered so that there would be no mistakes or confusion.

The journey around the district will be most entertaining and crowded with novel features in the way of scenery, from the arrival in the fields at the Consolidated out to the Silver Tip and Marian and Blue Moon, then along Derrick boulevard, passing many big producers and the great pipe lines and big power plants and pumping stations and receiving tanks holding millions of gallons of oil, past the New York-Coalinga, the M. K. & T., out to the Standard and the Limited, where a luncheon will probably be served the party by Superintendent Turnbull.

At 3 o'clock the party will return to the city when the citizens will entertain them until evening, when they are expected to sit at a banquet.

M. H. De Long will make an attempt to get Governor Gillett to change the date of his coming and be here on the 26th instead if the 29th, as at present contemplated. The presence of the governor on the date of the excursion will prove a great card and be of advantage not only to the city, but to the excursionists and governor as well. Senator Cartwright will also be asked to be present.

BOY COMES CROPPER, DIES FROM FALL

Norman Uniacke Receives Fracture of Skull.

B. H. I. McCracken Back from Two Years' Trip Around World.

DINUBA, Nov. 12.—While riding a horse to water yesterday morning, Norman Uniacke, the 11-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Uniacke of Sultana, was thrown and killed. The horse belonged to Miss Frances Knestrie, who had spent the night as a guest at the Uniacke home, and when Norman started from the barn with the animal, he dug his heels into the horse's flank and the animal threw him. The boy landed hard upon his head and fractured the skull. Concussion of the brain ensued, and it was planned to remove the child to a Fresno hospital for operation, but when the Santa Fe depot was reached it was seen that he was fast sinking and before he could be returned home, passed away.

B. H. I. McCracken, who left here two years ago for a trip around the world, arrived home last night. He has had a great time and tells some interesting things about places he visited and things he saw. He visited twenty-seven different countries and learned to use seventeen kinds of money. In his travels he went 31,500 miles by steamer and 15,000 miles by rail. One of the most interesting things he tells is that in Australia they have five states or provinces and in all of these there is a different width for the guage of the railroads and all the freight from one state has to be unloaded and transferred to the road in the next.

More than thirty of the people here have been summoned to appear at the battery case against Nightwatchman A. T. Ball, which comes up before Justice Clack in Visalia on the 18th. Ball is said to have made an unwarranted attack upon C. E. Tomerton of this place, and the latter had the officer arrested.

A petition was circulated here this week asking the trustees to build a number of cross walks at the most prominent street crossings, and the matter is meeting with favor among the city officials. It is probable something will be done very soon in a temporary way, and later it is hoped to be able to have the streets and crossings paved, especially in the business section. Dinuba has made immense strides in municipal improvement since incorporation, and the paving proposition has been talked of privately many times among the business men. A number of the property owners are in favor of the same and are anxious to see the work commence.

The plan for the union Thanksgiving services here have been completed. The services here have been completed Christian church with Rev. Arthur Deehman of the Presbyterian church as the speaker.

The last rain storm amounted to 1.28 inches, making a total for the year of 1.72.

There is to be a farmers' institute here in Music Hall on November 26th, under the auspices of the instructors of the agricultural department of the State University.

Miss Rowena Fraser, who was injured in a fall at the rink last Saturday night, is reported improving and will be well shortly.

MURDERER IS HANGED.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 12.—Hezekiah W. ("Bud") Barnes was hanged today in the penitentiary for the murder of Mrs. Anna Aldrich. Barnes bore up bravely and denied his guilt to the last.

AUTOMOBILE EXPLODES.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—A Pope-Toledo car exploded in practice on the back stretch today. Driver H. J. Kilpatrick and Mechanician Church were thrown from the track. Both escaped with slight injuries. The car was burned.

VISALIANS MIX IT OVER OIL CLAIMS

J. D. Martin Assaults City Trustee Lucier.

Quarrel Results Over Oil Land Locations in Devil's Den District.

VISALIA, Nov. 12.—Trouble is brewing in big bunches as a result of a dispute between local parties over oil property in the Devil's Den district thirty-five miles south of Coalinga. The pot that had been boiling for several days, spilled over last night, and a row in a local saloon in which City Trustee L. Lucier was roughly handled by J. D. Martin, a local realty dealer, culminated today in the announcement of a law suit. Incidentally Lucier swore to a complaint in the justice court charging Martin with battery, exhibiting marks and abrasions on the throat, where it is alleged Martin held him while he struck him on the head with his fists. There are also abrasions on the head.

The facts of the matter appear to be that in the latter part of September B. B. Dudley, J. D. Martin and others visited the Devil's Den district and made a verbal contract with one T. F. Dagney, the possessor of 240 acres in section 27-24-18, whereby the former were to bore for oil and Dagney was to have his choice of forty-acre pieces aside from the one the well was bored on. Dagney had made homestead entry on 160 of the piece and then realizing that he could not hold it in that form, filed mineral entries together with some seven other persons.

While on the ground the Dudley-Martin party met others, later identified with the Etzenhauser Oil Company, recently organized, of which Trustee Lucier is the largest individual stockholder, and were informed that they had acquired the ground from a man named Wheeler, residing in Hanford, who had made filings. According to the Dudleys it was agreed that if, after investigation, it was found that Dagney had the best title, the others were to withdraw, but if, on the other hand, it was found that Wheeler had the correct claim, the Dudley-Martins were to evacuate. The latter claim that it was found that Dagney was the rightful possessor, but that the Etzenhauser Company was formed and that Lucier pronounced a written contract with Dagney whereby the oil company was to bore on the premises.

Learning of this the Dudley-Martin interests hired a rig and three weeks ago began boring a small test hole to prove the land. They are down sufficiently far, they state, to establish the mineral character, and put the owner in line for a patent. They also claim right by possession and from prior contract with Dagney.

Trustee Lucier declined to speak of the matter this afternoon except to say that the matter had been placed in the hands of attorneys for the company and that the rights and wrongs of the affair would be determined in the courts.

"The fellow who is least secure in his position always does the most hollering," he added.

The Etzenhauser Company has erected a derrick on the land and some of the most extensive machinery ever brought to the west side has been purchased and is being installed.

There were rumors today that the Dudley-Martin interests might seek an injunction to prevent the company from commencing operations, but this could not be verified.

The oil company through Mr. Lucier has secured the services, it is announced, of Senator E. C. Miller and his law partner, J. A. Hannah to conduct its case.

Word received from Mrs. Elizabeth E. Singleton of this city, mother of Mrs. Page, wife of Dr. S. C. Page, who was operated upon in a Fresno sanitarium yesterday for the removal of a tumor from the breast, is that she is resting easy. Mrs. Page is with her.

N. D. Dabney, former proprietor of the Visalia house ; soon and prior thereto a partner in the Maine saloon in this city, who was released on bail in Fresno yesterday, where he was charged with desertion of his family, has returned here, where he is tending bar for J. H. Shannon.

An action was commenced today by H. Yoshisay and J. Kimura, Japanese, against C. Emerzian, an Armenian, to collect the sum of $753.07 alleged to be due on account of a contract for the picking of grapes. The Japanese allege they were to receive $2.30 per 100 small trays and $2.80 per 100 large trays. They picked, it is stated, 24,218 small and 6288 large trays, making a total as above given. The work was done the past season on Emerzian's ranch of some 270 acres west of Tulare. George E. Gill of Tulare is attorney for plaintiffs.

There are only Pitcher Mains, Shortstop Coultrin and Third Baseman Feeney left of the Pirate crew, Dashwood having gone to McKittrick to accept a position as catcher, offered there.

The high school football team goes to Porterville tomorrow to meet the team of that place in the regular league season's game. If Visalia wins the pennant will lie between it and Bakersfield.

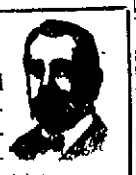

FOREST RESERVE ACREAGE IN FRESNO

County Surveyor McKay reported yesterday to the supervisors that the acreage of the three national forest reserves located in part or in whole in Fresno county, is as follows:

Sierra	1,265,280
Sequoia	192,894
San Benito	36,532

This acreage was figured up at the request of State Controller Nye as a basis on which to figure how much will come to Fresno's road and school funds from the money in the hands of Uncle Sam derived from the sale of public timber on these reserve lands.

TEN OFFERS RECEIVED FOR BIG PRIZE FIGHT

Both Jeffries and Johnson Prefer California; Three Bids Come From This State; Ketchel Signs to Meet Flynn

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The tentative bids for the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight which are expected to be considerably thinned out by December 1, include two offers from San Francisco, one from Los Angeles, two from the state of Washington, one from Idaho, one from Nevada, one from Oklahoma, one from Paris and one from Australia. As both Jeffries and Johnson have expressed a preference for California, and as it is doubtful if the fight can be held elsewhere in this country, it is considered more than probable that the big fight will go to Coffroth, or Gleason of San Francisco, or McCarey of Los Angeles. Jeffries is strongly opposed to fighting outside of this country.

SALT LAKE WANTS FIGHT.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 12.—F. C. Schelski, sporting editor of the Tribune, telegraphed James J. Jeffries tonight offering $100,000 for the Jeffries-Johnson fight, in behalf of A. Fred Way, a hotel man and other local business men.

BID FROM AUSTRALIA.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Nov. 12.—Hugh McIntosh, the fight promoter, has cabled to the United States an offer of a purse of $75,000 for the coming championship battle between Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries. The purse probably is offered with the expectation of holding the fight in the Olympic Club, London.

ANOTHER OFFER MADE.

RAPID CITY, S. D., Nov. 12.—Citizens of Rapid City tonight in less than two hours subscribed $50,000, with assurance that $25,000 additional could be secured, to use in bidding for the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

KETCHEL AND FLYNN MATCHED.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Articles have been signed by Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion, and Jim Flynn, for a ten-round contest in this city at a date to be chosen later. The announcement of the contest and the statement that Ketchel is guaranteed $5,000 were given out by the Pacific Athletic Club managers here tonight.

JOHNSON A TAX-PAYER.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—John Arthur Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, became a tax-payer in Chicago yesterday when a deed was filed for record making him sole owner of property, which comprised a three-story brick building on a lot 50 by 164 feet.

The house and lot were purchased for $11,000.

A garage will be built in the rear, where Johnson will keep his fast automobiles, and he plans to make room for at least four machines. Adjacent to the garage will be a gymnasium.

Johnson's brother will leave Monday for Galveston, Tex., the former home of the negro heavyweight, and will bring his mother to Chicago.

BOXING IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Another local athletic club has given boxing bouts without police interference, and thus encouraged, other clubs are preparing to renew their fighting activities which prevailed before Governor Hughes interfered a few months ago.

ATTELL TO MEET MORAN.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 12.—Abe Attell, featherweight champion, and Jimmy Moran, formerly of England, have been matched to fight eight rounds before the Phoenix Athletic Club on November 2.

JOE WILLIS NOW AFTER JIM FLYNN

Navy Yard Champ Believes He Can Stop Fighting Fireman; Receives Offer from Coalinga.

Joe Willis, the game San Francisco heavyweight whose recent performance has created something of a sensation, is hot on the trail of Jim Flynn of Pueblo, says the Los Angeles Herald. If anyone was ever entitled to a match with the fighting fireman it is Willis, is the belief of his manager, Will Caruthers, and in this opinion he is backed up by every local fan.

Both men are game to the core. Both are fighters who take to mixing things, and both have first-class records. If Willis should defeat Flynn he will have attained an enviable position.

Meanwhile Joe has received a tempting offer from Coalinga to meet Gentleman Jack Burns in that city over the forty-five round route on Thanksgiving Day. Willis has trained five times to meet the Salina boy, but has entered the ring with him but once. In that fight Willis broke his arm in the second round after taking the best of the first two sessions.

Nothing will probably be done about this match, however, until a fight with Flynn has been arranged.

Willis confidently asserts that he will stop the fireman inside of ten rounds. Flynn's backers reply nix. Both men are favorites with Los Angeles fandom. A meeting of the two would draw one of the best houses which Naud Junction has seen for many a day, and would either brand Willis as a near champion or as a second-class pug.

KLING DEFEATED BY THOS. HUESTON

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—Thomas Hueston of St. Louis, for a third time became champion pool player of the world when he defeated John G. Kling in the fourth and final block of a 800-ball match here tonight. The score tonight was 197 to 179. The total score of the series stood: Hueston, 800; Kling, 652. In addition to the championship, Hueston won a side bet of $250 on the match from Kling.

AMERICAN WORSTED IN JIU JITSU BOUT

SEATTLE, Nov. 12.—Professor Tokoguro Ito, a Japanese of Seattle made short work of George Braun, of San Francisco in a jiu jitsu match here tonight. The Japanese defeated his white antagonist in two straight falls, taking the first in 2 minutes, 22 seconds and the second in 40 seconds. In both instances the strangle hold was used.

The services of three physicians were required to revive Braun after the second fall.

THREE STAR BASEBALL PLAYERS WHO MAY FIGURE IN TRADES SHORTLY

Although the ball, bat, mask and other paraphernalia which go to make up the game of baseball have been laid away for another season, the fan is not to find the rest which he dreads rather than looks forward to so soon as was feared. The chatter which lends some life to the so-called off season and which gives the more ardent enthusiast of the national pastime something to think about started sooner than was expected. In fact, since the season closed the magnates have been very active. Five clubs have chosen leaders for 1910. In the American League Chicago has obtained Hugh Duffy to lead the White Sox to victory next season. Washington McAleer, St. Louis Jack O'Connor and Boston Pat Donovan. In the National League only one has been selected, Bill Dahlen, who is to try his utmost to push the Brooklyn aggregation of pill handlers into the first division. Nearly all the magnates have many deals on tap, and all are hopeful that they will be able to make a trade that will greatly strengthen their team. It is said on good authority that Manager Jennings of Detroit is going to trade First Baseman Tom Jones, Second Sacker Delehanty and a young pitcher for Bill Bradley, the Cleveland's crack third sacker, and Catcher "Nig" Clarke. Fred Clarke of Pittsburg has also several players on the market for exchange. The manager of the world's champions is willing to give four good players, among them Bill Abstein, the Pirates' first sacker, for Konetchy, who played such a grand game around the initial sack for the St. Louis Nationals all last season. It is also rumored that there is to be a big shake-up in the ranks of the Chicago Nationals before the bell rings for the start next season. Joe Tinker, it is said, is slated for trade. The latter has been quite chummy with Manager Clark Griffith of Cincinnati of late, and it is more than likely that "Noisy Joe" will wear a Red uniform in 1910. With many other deals contemplated by the different managers, it looks as if the dyed in the wool fan will find lots of food for gossip before the teams start on their training trips next spring.

Universities Clash On Stanford Field Today

Blue and Gold Rugby 15 Is Confident of Gaining Victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The annual intercollegiate football game between Stanford University and the University of California will be played tomorrow on the Stanford campus and from the showing made by each team in preliminary games the struggle will be one of the most thrilling in which the rival teams have engaged in many years. Since the big universities of the coast adopted the Rugby game four years ago to take the place of American football, Stanford has won every visiting contest, but the California men are putting into the field this year the strongest and best trained team they have ever had and are hopeful of victory.

The teams for the two universities this year are the heaviest which ever represented the rival institutions. The Stanford fifteen averages 179 pounds to the man, while the Californians are figured at 177. Most of the heavyweights are in the scrum ranks, and figuring only three forwards, Stanford's average is 193 pounds; California's 190.

Betting on the contest has been slow to start, owing to the fact that the final lineup of the teams was not given out until today. At present the odds are 10 to 8 in Stanford's favor and this fairly affects the showing of the two teams in the season's games with other teams.

Great preparations have been made to handle the largest crowd that has ever attended an event at the university. Stanford Field, where the game will be played, was built several years ago and the full seating capacity of the stand will be filled to overflowing.

Each college will be represented on the bleachers by a solid mass of organized rooters, primed with yells and songs with which the teams will be cheered on through the fight. The rooters will be decorated with "rooter hats" as on previous occasions, with headgear representing a field of their respective colors, Stanford showing the Cardinal and California the Blue and Gold.

The teams will line up as follows:

Stanford—Fullback, Brown; three-quarters, Sanborn, Holman and Roth; five-eighths, S. Mitchell and M. Mitchell (captain); halfback, Cass; Scrum men, Cheda, Fitting, Horton, Minturn, Dole, Crawford, Thorpe, Pemberton.

California — Fullback, Dwiggins; three-quarters, Harris, Watts and Johns; five-eighths, Allen and Elliott; halfback, Cerf (captain); Scrum men, Carpenter, C. Phleger, Markwart, Ashley, Hardy, Jordan, Graff and Northcroft.

The game will be refereed by Jenkinson, the Vancouver Rugby expert, who officiated last year.

HORSEMAN MAKES ENVIABLE RECORD

Secures Nineteen Firsts, Six Seconds and Once Third With Eleven Entries.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—With horse show week drawing to its close, it is apparent tonight that Judge William V. Moore, already has established a record never before equaled in the national association. His eleven entries have thus far taken nineteen firsts, six seconds and one third.

C. W. Watson of Baltimore, who swept all before him last summer at the international horse show in London and the open air meets in this country, has only one first, six seconds, and six thirds to share among eighteen entries.

Alfred and Reginald Vanderbilt, with thirty-seven horses between them, have captured but two blues, seven seconds and seven thirds.

FAMOUS TROTTER DIES IN THE EAST

ST. PAUL, Nov. 12.—Directum, 2:05¼, which set a world's record for four year old trotters in 1893, on the Nashville track, died Thursday at Savage, Minn. Death was due to blood poisoning. M. W. Savage purchased Directum, which was 21 years old, in 1898, for $20,000.

First Baseman Tracey Is Awarded To Fresno

La Crosse, Wis., Club Relinquishes Claim to Clever Tiger.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 12.—The National Board of Arbitration settled a number of disputed baseball matters today. The claim of Dallas, Texas, against St. Paul for transportation furnished to players was allowed.

The claim of Springfield against Muskogee for $500 was referred to President Shively for adjustment and collection.

Player H. C. Tracey was awarded to the California State League.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 12.—The national board of arbitration concluded its work late today and adjourned to meet in July in New York city.

The meeting will be devoted entirely to the work of re-classifying the leagues.

The most important question decided by the national board at its meeting is the admission of the California State League to the ranks of organized baseball. The question involved the ownership of 100 or more players and carries with it the payment of several thousand dollars.

At the closing session of the board today the draft of Player Rapp from Oklahoma City by Portland, Ore., was allowed, the counter claim of Kansas City for Rapp being disallowed.

The claim of Spokane against St. Paul relative to Player Loughlin was allowed.

Football Huskies Meet On Many Grids Today

Cornell Clashes With Chicago; Yale Battles With Princeton.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Cornell plays Chicago tomorrow, the biggest game of the season for the Ithacans on their home grounds. The two teams tied, six to six, last year. Cornell had light signal practice today.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 12.—Yale is ready for the game with Princeton tomorrow and with three exceptions, where the injuries are slight, the men are in perfect condition.

At Wichita: Ottawa University, 33; Fairmont College, 0.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 12.—The football championship of the Middle West probably depends on the game to be played in Madison tomorrow between Minnesota and Wisconsin. Both teams thus far have won all contests this year. Predictions largely favor Minnesota, although Wisconsin's line is slightly stronger. Minnesota, however, has more individual stars.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—Dartmouth and Harvard meet on the gridiron here tomorrow. Coach Lillard of Dartmouth reported that every man but one was in good shape. The Harvard men are all in good condition.

ATHLETIC GOSSIP

The Kutners and Republicans will try conclusions at Recreation park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the initial game of the proposed series during the winter between amateur and semi-professional teams. Symons and Owens will be in the points for the Kutners and Howard and King will form the battery for the Republicans.

Dick Crawford's Purple and Gold eleven will journey to Sanger today for a practice struggle with the Sanger Hi football team. The regular Fresno Hi team will not be used, inasmuch as some of the players have gone to Stanford to witness the annual Rugby battle between the big universities today.

ROBERTSON IN FIAT "60" LOWERS 20-MILE RECORD

Chalmers-Detroit Team Captures Laurels in Small Stock Car Events—One Accident Mars the Program

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—Today's automobile races reached their climax when George H. Robertson, driving a sixty horse-power Fiat, lowered the American track record for fifty miles by :04:07. He made the distance in 40:12:02. The previous record was held by John N. Aiken. Aiken, who drove a National second in today's race, and Stillman, who came in third in a Marmon, both bettered the Indianapolis mark. Aiken made the distance in 43:11:41, and Stillman in 43:30:56.

Eight cars started and five finished. Lewis Strang, piloting his 200 horse-power Fiat, set a terrible pace in the first seventeen miles, but in the eighteenth as he was passing the judge's stand the tire of his year right wheel exploded. This compelled his withdrawal, as it was impossible, with the special design of the car, to make a quick replacement of tires. His time for the first ten miles was 07:18:32.

Strang traveled on an average of three seconds a mile faster than Robertson and on this basis it is figured that had he been able to finish the race he would have gone the fifty miles in four minutes less than the time made by Robertson.

Hugh Harding, driver of the Apperson "jack rabbit," had a hard time trying to keep out of the pocket made for him by the two Chalmers-Detroit drivers, Lorimer and Dingley. On the twenty-seventh mile, while Lorimer was at the left of him and slightly in advance, and Dingley close behind on the right, Harding made an attempt to escape from the pocket. Lorimer blew a tire, running against the fence and losing a wheel. Harding was about six feet behind when he also blew a tire, but managed to avoid running into his rival.

A more serious accident occurred during the practice hour, when a special designed, high powered Pope-Toledo, valued at $25,000, was wrecked. H. J. Kirkpatrick, driver, and R. G. Church, mechanician, were thrown 150 feet from their seats, but fell in a bedding of underbrush and escaped with slight injuries. The car was a total loss.

The blowing up of Strang's tire gave Robertson the lead at the end of the twentieth mile. He was followed by Aiken, Harding, Lorimer, Stillman, Dingley and Disbrow, the last named in a Rainier.

After the accident to Harding and Lorimer, Stillwell occupied the place until the finish.

In his forty-second mile Aiken was compelled to replace a tire. The change was made in a minute and a half and the star driver of the National team was able to resume without losing his position as second in the race.

The weather today was warm and inviting and the largest crowd of the meeting witnessed the event.

H. J. Kilpatrick and his mechanician, R. Church, narrowly escaped death when Kilpatrick's care exploded and was burned.

Kilpatrick, holder of the straightaway record of 37 seconds for the mile, made on Long Island last year, had just made a lap of two miles in his best effort of the present meet, in 1:36.

He had completed the second turn when a sylinder exploded. The machine was going seventy miles an hour. The spectators believed neither driver nor assistant could escape. A rush was made across the paddock, but both men were found expostulating with the ambulance physician against going to the hospital. They had been merely scratched.

The asphaltum covering of the track was ignited by the burning wreck, and before it could be extinguished furnished a fiery spectacle.

The machine destroyed was built to enter the Vanderbilt cup race.

The accident delayed the starting until nearly 1 o'clock.

Knipper and Matson, the Chalmers-Detroit team, were the only entrants in the twenty-four mile race for stock cars. Knipper won by a half second. The two cars were at no time more than a second apart. Time, 23:40:48.

Stoecker, driving a stock Benz, won the twenty-mile handicap race. The finish:

Benz (Stoecker), 20:38:86.
Matheson (Whalen), 21:15:66.
Renault (Shaab), 21:15:68.

The twelve mile stock chassis race was wone by Aiken, piloting a National "40." The finish:

National (Aiken), 10:07:45.
Chalmers-Detroit (Lorimer), 10:09:28.
Chalmers-Detroit (Dingley), 10:19:43.

Ray Harroun was the hero of an exciting ten mile handicap. His Marmon "32" conceded 24 seconds to Knipper and Matson, the Chalmers-Detroit team, and won by the fraction of a second in 9:51:01.

George Robertson, driving his sixty horse-power Fiat, took the six mile stock chassis car race.

Dolly Gray Wins From Angels, Former Teammates

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—The All-Nationals defeated the Los Angeles Coast League team again today, 6 to 2. Los Angeles got eleven hits off Gray, but fine fielding prevented many runs. Score:

All-Nationals	6	7	1
Los Angeles	2	11	4

Batteries—Gray and Bliss; Tozer and Orendorff.

NO RACES AT LATONIA TRACK

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—Horses stationed at the Latonia race track remained in their stables today and the course was given over to the racers of the air, who have entered the aviation meeting under the auspices of the Cincinnati Aero Club.

Big Chief Bender Has Indian Sign On the Seals

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The Philadelphia Athletics easily defeated the San Francisco pennant winners today, piling up a 7 to 1 score and batting Willis out of the box. San Francisco's three misplays made the work of the big leaguers easier. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Athletics	7	12	0
San Francisco	1	7	3

Batteries—Bender and Thomas; Willis, Henley and Berry.

NEW ORLEANS BIDS FOR THAT BIG BOUT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12.—That he would leave tonight for New York to bid for the Jeffries-Johnson fight on behalf of a syndicate of local promoters, was announced here today by Harry W. Fitzpatrick, president of the Southern Athletic Club of New Orleans. He expressed belief that there would be no opposition to the fight here.

CHINESE GUN MEN BEING WATCHED

Belief That Bloody War Is Soon to Be Carried Into the Surrounding Cities.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—There were no developments in the Chinese tong war tonight, the police maintaining a strict watch over the Chinese quarter. Every alley and street was patrolled by officers in uniform and plain clothes and detectives were thick about the gambling places, keeping close watch on known gun men. The vigilance of the authorities is such that it is reported to be improbable that any attacks will be made here but the detectives believe the war has been carried to the out of town settlements, and that more murders are to be expected. Tong King Chong and Gee Hong On, the Chinese against whom warrants have been issued charging them with conspiracy to murder, have not surrendered themselves, although their bonds have been fixed. It is believed that they will give themselves up as soon as they secure bondsmen.

Some of the detectives are inclined to regard the charges against Chong and On as of little weight. They believe that the fight between the Yee family and the On Yick family have offered enemies of the pair opportunity to cause trouble which they have failed to seize. Both men have many enemies.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure bad backs. Cure lame, weak and aching backs. Cure every form of Kidney Ills.

Lots of local endorsement to prove this.

Mrs. Barthenia Ellis, 737 I street, Fresno, Cal., says: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble, the principal symptom being too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I also suffered from dizzy spells and there was a constant lameness in my back. I was sore and stiff in the morning and was hardly able to get around. I took many remedies but they did not seem to reach my case and I despaired of ever getting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and I procured a box at Baker & Colson's drug store. I began to feed a great deal better after I had taken the contents of the first box and soon every symptom of my trouble disappeared. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a fine kidney remedy and in view of my experience, I have no hesitation in recommending them."

DIME NOVELS LEAD YOUTH TO ROBBERY

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Nov. 12.—Thomas Jefferson Hall, the 17-year-old Louisville boy who yesterday killed J. W. Fawcett, cashier, and severely wounded John K. Woodward, president of the Merchants' National Bank of this city, in an attempt to rob the institution, declared today that Harry Alexander, porter of the bank, and James W. Tucker, chauffeur, held for complicity in the affair, are guiltless.

Young Hall, who is held in the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville, admitted that he had conceived the idea of robbing the bank from the reading of sensational novels during the last year or six years.

DIRIGIBLES WIN HONORS EASILY

Machine of Glenn Curtiss Suffers Accident; Boy Rises in Air 2000 Feet.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—The dirigibles easily carried off first honors at the opening of the Cincinnati Aero Club's meet at the Latonia race track today. An accident happened to Glenn H. Curtiss' aeroplane after he had made two short flights. Charles F. Willard, the only other aeroplanist competing, made several flights of several hundred yards in a straight line. All the pilots displayed perfect control over their machines. In the dirigibles Roy Knabenshue, Lincoln Beachey and Cromwell Dixon performed spectacular evolutions. Dixon, 17 years old, arose to over 2000 feet.

Willard, in an aeroplane, brought the spectators to their feet, cheering again and again as he swept past the grand stand, rising and falling easily and maintaining a speed of about twenty-five miles an hour. The injury to Curtiss' machine is slight and he announced that he would be prepared to start in the long distance contest tomorrow. On Sunday three hydromas will start on a race to the Pacific Coast.

QUILTY OF HAVING COUNTERFEIT COINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Fred A. Foster was found guilty today of having counterfeit coins in his possession and will be sentenced by Judge De Haven in the United States district court tomorrow. The jury refused to find that Foster had participated in the manufacture of the coins, although was part of the charge against him. Foster was arrested at Marysville last April in company with Thomas Crowe and William Wakefield, both of whom are now serving sentences.

ALASKA IS GOOD FIELD FOR FARMERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—That Alaska is a fertile field for farmers is indicated by an exhibit of its farm products now being conducted in this city. Agriculturalists in Eastern states have been attracted in large numbers to the display, which surpasses the farm exhibits of an ordinary county fair, and as a result hundreds of home-seekers have arranged to start farms in Alaska, particularly in the Tanana Valley region.

FARMERS FIGHT WITH PITCHFORKS

LA PORTE, Ind., Nov. 12.—In a pitchfork duel in Stark county between Clarence Benninghoff and John W. Rank, farmers, living adjacent to each other, Benninghoff received injuries which will probably prove fatal. His body is a mass of wounds inflicted by the tines of the fork Rank wielded. Rank is under arrest.

LIQUOR QUESTION BOTHERS UNIONS

Minister Meets Bartenders' Representative and Has Discussion on the Subject

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—During the five days the American Federation of Labor have been in session here there has been much speculation as to the attitude it might take on the question of labor and the saloon.

When it was announced early in the week that the temperance mass meeting would be held Sunday under the labor department of the Presbyterian church, delegates representing the International Union of the United Brewery Workers, the Restaurant Employes' International Alliance, and the Bartenders' International League began to canvass the situation to ascertain whether the liquor question would reach the floor of the convention.

The Rev. Charles Stelzle, a fraternal delegate from the Council of Churches of Christian America, has been advocating a temperance brotherhood among the trades unions, and will preside at the Sunday meeting.

It is understood that President Gompers is anxious to avoid a debate on the liquor question and he was instrumental today in bringing about a meeting between J. L. Sullivan, representing the Bartenders' Union and Rev. Mr. Stelzle, who gave Sullivan to understand that his plans contemplated an attempt to stop the holding of labor meeting between J. L. Sullivan, repre-

President Gompers, it is said, agreed to lend his support to the resolution urging the erection of labor temples and other places for holding meetings.

Sunday's meeting will be addressed by Mr. Stelzle, John Mitchell and John B. Lennon, treasurer of the organization.

RICH JAPANESE WOMAN ARRIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—One of the wealthiest women in Japan arrived in this country today when S. Takaki, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, led his bride ashore from the liner Manchuria. Mrs. Takaki was formerly Miss Tatsuo Mitsui, a daughter of the Japanese house of Mitsui, which is said to be to Japan what the Rothschilds are to Europe.

Mrs. Takaki has a million in her own name and is the heir to a vast fortune besides. The wedding, which took place October 9, was a social event of great importance in Tokio and the couple have been on their honeymoon ever since. Takaki will have charge of the Mitsui interests in New York.

WANTS WOMEN TO OCCUPY PULPITS

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—A solution of the problem, "How to get more ministers" was submitted to the eighteenth triennial convention of Congregational churches yesterday by Mrs. Hannah M. Mullineaux in an address before 200 ministers and laymen declared that the time has come when women must be admitted to the pulpit in large numbers. Mrs. Mullineaux, who said she had held several pastorates, declared that it is providential that there is a dearth of men entering the ministry, as the congregations would now have to consider women for their spiritual leaders. The convention listened in silence to her address and no action was taken.

NAPLES, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and her daughter, Miss Ethel, boarded the steamer Koenig Albert for New York this evening. Mrs. Roosevelt said she had received no direct communication from Colonel Roosevelt or her son Kermit.

SYSTEMATIC SEARCH FOR MISSING GIRL

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Twenty-five young women from the choir of St. Peter's German Lutheran church in the Bronx, are conducting a systematic search to find Emma Hofman, 17 years old, who was a member of the choir and whose strange disappearance from her home Monday morning has been explained. Each young woman acquaintance has been assigned to travel continuously on a certain street car line or to search through a particular district. While others have been instructed to call at all homes and business places where Miss Hoffman might have gone. Others are canvassing all institutions to which the girl might have been taken as a victim of an accident.

REVOLUTIONISTS BADLY DEFEATED

Greytown Is Occupied and San Juan Del Norte Is in the Possession of Army.

MANAGUA, Nov. 12.—The government today defeated the revolutionists in a naval battle, during which three steamers and some artillery were captured. A number of revolutionists were killed.

Greytown was reoccupied Thursday by the government, without a battleship of his forces are now on the way to Bluefield.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12.—A public message from President Zalaya of Nicaragua, received by Consul General Altschul here tonight, states that the government forces recovered San Juan Del Norte, on Thursday. No mention was made in the message of a battle in connection with the occupation of the town.

The text of the cablegram was given out by the consul as follows: "Our victorious army recovered San Juan Del Norte yesterday."

PANAMA, Nov. 12.—The agents of the Nicaraguan revolution here today received a wireless dispatch from Bluefield, stating that there was a fierce engagement between the Nicaraguan forces and the revolutionary troops under General Chamorro, in the junta Del Colorado from November 9 to November 12, and that it resulted in the defeat of the government.

NEW YORK HOTELS FILLED TO CAPACITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—For the first time in several years, excepting the period of the Hudson-Fulton celebration, every hotel in New York is crowded to its capacity. Hotel managers declare that this is a reflection of the wave of prosperity reported sweeping over the country. None of the large hotels are supplying suites and no matter how distinguished a guest may be, he must be contented with a single bed-room. Beds have been placed in all available rooms and every bed is taken.

MEN FIRE BULLETS AND WOUND THREE

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—In a revival of the former gang fights which for years terrorized the East Side during the reign of Monk Eastman and other leaders, most of whom are now in prison, four men drove up to a saloon in Suffolk street before daylight today and fired a fusillade of bullets at half a dozen young men in the bar room. One man dropped with a bullet in the back of his head, another received a bullet in his neck and a third was shot through the hand. Before the police could arrive the four assailants were back into the taxicab which brought them to the scene and were hurried away. The man who was shot in the head will probably die.

CONDUCTORS MUST SHOW POLITENESS

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Employes of the Chicago Railways Company must be polite to passengers and seek to cultivate the good will of patrons of the lines.

In a letter addressed to all motormen and conductors, the company yesterday laid down a new code of rules. If a passenger offers a conductor a transfer that is useless and swears because it is refused, the conductor must smile sweetly and give the passenger detailed reasons for not accepting the slip.

Women with children are supposed to be special wards of conductors, and in the new rules, the employes are requested to help such passengers to get on and off the cars. Old and infirm persons must be given special attention whenever possible.

NEW RECORD FOR CARRIER PIGEONS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—An eight-hundred-mile flight in thirty-one hours and forty-nine minutes was the record made by a carrier pigeon released here Wednesday and which reached Center, Colo., yesterday afternoon.

The bird belongs to Edward Gartman of Center and this was its first long flight. It was hatched last spring.

The distance from Kansas City to Center by rail is 321 miles, but by airline is about 100 miles shorter.

CONFER DEGREES ON TAFT AND SHERMAN

HARTFORD Conn., Nov. 12.—President Taft today visited Middletown and Hartford, attending in the former city this morning the installation of Dr. William D. Shanklin as president of Wesleyan University and participating here tonight in the dedication of the magnificent new state arsenal and armory. The president left at 10:40 p. m. for Washington. As part of the installation exercises at Wesleyan University, the degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon President Taft, Vice President Sherman, Senator Root and others.

When Governor Weeks introduced President Taft at the Armory dedication in Hartford tonight the crowd was so big that in the crush several women fainted.

LIEUTENANT WADE LOSES LEGAL FIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The suit for heavy damages brought against the Cosmopolitan Magazine by Lieutenant Charles T. Wade, U. S. N., was decided today in favor of the defendant. It was charged in the magazine that Lieutenant Wade's inexperience resulted in the boiler explosion on the gunboat Bennington at San Diego, Cal., July 10, 1905, when sixty men were killed and forty-nine wounded.

JEWELER KILLED BY JEALOUS WIFE

Daughter Confesses Crime of Mother After Latter Was Sent to an Asylum.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Henry Brodenheyer, a jeweler of Madison, Wis., who was found dead near his home in the summer of 1906, and was believed to have been murdered by a robber, was killed by his wife, Margaret, now a patient at the Dunning (Ill.) insane asylum. This is the confession made today by the daughter, Clara Brodenheyer, to Assistant Chief of Police Schuttler of Chicago.

The confession followed weeks of investigation by Chicago detectives. Brodenheyer, though 62 years old, had aroused the jealousy of his wife. She satisfied herself of his infidelity and decided to kill him. Luring him to an abandoned slaughter house, she shot him twice. He died almost instantly. The daughter encountered her mother hastening from the slaughter house. Her mother said that Brodenheyer had committed suicide, but when the girl accused her of killing him, Mrs. Brodenheyer confessed, and asked her daughter to assist in concealing the crime. They dragged the body into the roadway, and concealed it behind a clump of bushes.

The woman's mind finally became a wreck, and five weeks ago she was adjudged insane.

Officers of Madison, Wis., today went to the Dunning asylum, and interviewed Mrs. Brodenheyer. They told her that her daughter had confessed her crime. Without a particle of emotion, the woman confirmed the confession.

Because of her adjudgment for insanity, Mrs. Brodenheyer probably will not be tried for the crime.

CHRYSANTHEMUM IS LARGEST ON RECORD

NEW YORK—Nov. 12.—All records for the cultivation of chrysanthemums have been broken by a bloom on exhibition here by the Chrysanthemum Society of America. The flower is 16 inches in diameter, is remarkably full and of a delicate yellow tint. It was grown by D. Willis James at Madison, N. J.

CONTINUE CASE OF MRS. ALLEN READ

DENVER, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Allen Read, who is being tried for attempted extortion of $100,000 from Mrs. Genevieve Phipps and whose physical condition yesterday compelled an abrupt postponement of the trial, was somewhat better today and the cross-examination of Mrs. Phipps was resumed.

WHEAT MEN TELL ALDRICH TROUBLES

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—Senator Aldrich, chairman of the National Monetary Commission met the bankers of this grain and milling center today and heard from their lips the story of the difficulties frequently encountered in getting enough money to move the crops of the Northwest.

Senator Aldrich was told that from thirty to forty million dollars are sent from the Twin Cities during the crop moving period, and that ordinarily this money does not return until the next year.

It was brought out that bankers of the Northwest have difficulty in handling foreign exchange in which many of the mills deal.

One of the speakers said that after the panic of 1893 and 1907 business was almost paralyzed by this.

Senator Aldrich in his address reviewed the Swedish banking system as worthy of study.

If the Box Isn't Green It Isn't a Puck

PUCK is a cigar to talk about. We talk about it because unlike other five cent cigars it will bear talking about. After we've talked about it you'll try it and then you'll talk about it.

PUCK

THE BETTER THAN 5¢ CIGAR with the Havana taste

has a long leafed filler with no stems to interfere with free smoking. The binder blends the aroma and the genuine Sumatra wrapper helps that soft Havana taste.

Ask your dealer to show you PUCK and see the difference. Smoke them and taste the difference. Buy a box and keep them by. Buy them in your favorite shape.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The first installment of taxes, both city and county, are due and payable at the office of the Tax Collector, at the Court House, Fresno, the second Monday in October (the 11th) and delinquent the last Monday in November (the 29th.)

Both installments may be paid at the same time.

Please remember that after six o'clock on Monday, November 29th, a penalty of 15 per cent will be added and this law will be carried out to the minute. I would advise paying as early as possible to avoid the rush that occurs the last week.

ORDINANCE NO. 129.

Before the Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno, State of California.

In the matter of the application of the Fresno Traction Company, for a franchise to construct and maintain a street railroad.

Ordinance granting franchise to construct, equip, operate and maintain a street and interurban railroad along, over, across and upon certain streets, avenues and highways of the County of Fresno, State of California, describing the terms, conditions and obligations thereof.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno, State of California, in open session, does hereby enact and ordain as follows, to-wit:

Whereas, all acts, matters and things precedent to the granting of the franchise and grant hereinafter set forth have heretofore happened, been done and performed in due form of law;

Now, therefore, the Board of Supervisors of the said County of Fresno, State of California, does hereby ordain as follows, to-wit:

That a franchise for the term and period of fifty years be, and the same is, hereby granted to the Fresno Traction Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the state of California, and having its principal place of business at Fresno, California, and to its successors and assigns, to construct, equip, operate and maintain a street and interurban railroad, together with all and singular single and double tracks, switches, side-tracks, spur-tracks, turnouts, poles, trolley wires, cross wires, feed wires, appliances and appurtenances necessary thereto, and convenient and desirable therefor, along, over, across and upon those certain streets, avenues and highways, and portions of certain highways of the said county of Fresno, as follows, to-wit:

Beginning on First Street at or near the northerly line of Tulare Avenue and connecting with the tracks and street railroad now thereon and running thence in a southerly direction along the central portion of said First Street to the southerly line of Kern Avenue, all as per maps or plats showing said streets and avenues now on file and of record in the office of the county recorder of said county.

The terms, conditions, restrictions and limitations under which said franchise and all the rights, privileges, permits and immunities thereby conferred or granted are as follows, to-wit:

1. The street and interurban railroad constructed and operated under said franchise shall be used for the transportation of passengers, express matter, the mails of the United States and freight.

2. In all cases where said franchise is granted over, along, across or upon any street or streets, avenues or highways, or portions of such, that are now, or may hereafter be, occupied by other line or lines of street railways or railroads, the said grantee herein named, its successors and assigns, shall have the right, and the same is hereby granted, to operate and run its cars over any and all tracks of such other line or lines; subject, however to the provisions and limitations of the Statutes of the State of California, applicable thereto.

3. The tracks to be laid under this franchise shall be laid along the center of the streets and highways traversed thereby, or as near thereto as existing conditions will allow. All cars used or run over said railway shall be propelled by electricity or other approved motive power, except horses, mules, steam locomotives or steam dummies; and the right is hereby given and granted to said grantee, its successors and assigns, to substitute one such motive power for another, as aforesaid, whenever the interests and business of said grantee, its successors or assigns, or the general welfare or convenience may seem to demand the same, subject to reasonable regulations by the said Board of Supervisors.

4. The said grantee, its successors and assigns, shall use in the construction of said railway good standard material, including rails weighing not less than forty-five pounds per yard thereof.

5. Said grantee, or its successors and assigns, shall at its own expense, pave or repave, macadamize or remacadamize, grade or regrade the said railway between the rails thereof, and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks where sidings or two tracks are laid, with the same material as may be used for such purposes by said county, and under the same supervision and specifications, and in the same manner as upon the streets or highways, or portions thereof, over which said railway runs, or the track or tracks thereof are laid, and shall keep the same constantly so paved and macadamized and in repair, flushed with the street, and provided with suitable crossings. It shall be the duty of said grantee, its successors and assigns, whenever steps are taken by the said Board of Supervisors, or property owners acting under authority so to do, to do or cause to be done any of the street work, road work or improvements herein enumerated, to cause said work to be done upon the portion of said streets and highways which said grantee, its successors or assigns, are required by law or ordinance to repair and keep in repair, at the same time and in the same manner and under the same supervision as above provided.

6. The road bed of said railway shall conform at all times to the established grade of the street, streets or highways on or over which the same is laid.

7. Cars sufficient for the transportation of all passengers desiring passage shall be run over every part of the railway constructed under this franchise each way, on every day, unless prevented by the elements, riots, strikes or unavoidable causes, at intervals of not more than one hour, between the hours of six a. m. and ten p. m.

8. Said grantee or its successors or assigns, shall construct all necessary flumes and culverts for the free passage of surface water under the tracks of said railway wherever and whenever necessary, and all such culverts and flumes, and all curves, aqueducts, turnouts and switches shall be constructed in a first-class manner and suitable for the purpose. Said grantee, its successors and assigns, shall also have the right to excavate and remove such portions of the streets and highways occupied, or to be occupied by tracks and poles, as may be necessary properly to construct said railway and to erect needful apparatus and appliances so as to fully equip and operate the same; provided, however, that if said grantee, or its successors or assigns, shall in constructing or operating said railway, or any portion thereof, or any of the appurtenances thereto belonging, cut or injure any sewer, underground aqueduct or pipe line on or under said street, the same shall be repaired and left in as good condition as formerly, all at the expense of the grantee, its successors or assigns.

9. The said county of Fresno, in granting this franchise, expressly reserves the right to pave or repave, macadamize or remacadamize, grade or regrade, sewer or resewer, or otherwise improve at any time any of the streets or highways occupied by said railway, the grantee, its successors and assigns to perform all work required of it or them to be kept in repair, at the same time and in the manner aforesaid, said work to be done at such times and in such a manner as to interrupt, interfere with or injure said railway and the operation thereof as little as possible.

10. All the poles erected or used by the said grantee, its successors or assigns, either for the purpose of supporting or carrying trolley wires, cross wires or feed wires shall be set at the sides of the streets and highways occupied so as to cause as little inconvenience to the public and property owners as possible, and no wires used in connection with said railway shall be strung or carried less than sixteen feet above ground; provided, however, that said grantee, its successors or assigns, shall have the right and right of way, and the same are hereby granted, along and upon such of the public highways, or portions thereof of said county as may be necessary therefor to erect poles and string and carry thereon all wires needful for the proper operation of said railway.

11. The rate of fare for any distance one way over said railway shall not exceed five cents for one passenger; provided, however, that no fare shall be demanded or collected of or from any passenger carried over any part of said railway until a seat shall have been provided for him or her in the car in which he or she is traveling, unless the failure to so provide a seat or seats is due to an excessive, extraordinary or unforeseen amount of travel at the time. The grantee, its successors and assigns, shall and must at all times, upon and after the completion of said railway, and during the operation thereof, and without extra charge issue and receive from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for one continuous passage over and upon any and every other line and lines of any other railway or railways within said county, which said grantee, or its successors or assigns, shall construct under this franchise, or hereafter own, control, operate or be interested in, not more than two miles in length. No fare shall be charged for children under three years of age.

12. Passenger cars of said railway shall have distinguishing numbers with no duplicates, and be equipped as efficiently and conveniently as the cars in use by other street railways of similar character, and provided with efficient safety fenders.

13. The tracks of said railway must not be wider than the standard railway gauge, nor less than three feet between the rails.

14. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to be a waiver by said county, or the Board of Supervisors, of the right to impose upon said franchise, and the property owned, held or operated by said grantee, its successors or assigns thereunder, any license tax that may be allowed by law, or fixed and determined by said Board.

15. Said grantee or its successors and assigns, shall semi-annually, during the life of said franchise, pay to said county of Fresno, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent. of the gross receipts of said grantee, its successors and assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise. No such or any, percentage shall be paid during the first five years next succeeding the date of this franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable and paid semi-annually. It shall be the duty of said grantee, its successors and assigns, to file with the clerk of said Board of Supervisors, upon the expiration of five and one-half years from the date of the granting of said franchise, and at the expiration of each and every half year thereafter, a statement verified by the oath of an officer of said grantee, its successors or assigns, showing that total gross receipts or gross earnings as aforesaid, collected or received by said grantee, its successors or assigns, during the preceding six months, from all passengers, and for all express matter, the United States mails and freight carried or transported in any direction over any part of said railway for the construction and operation of which said franchise is granted, and within thirty days after the filing of such statement, it shall be and is hereby made the duty of said grantee, its successors or assigns, to pay to said county, as aforesaid, the aggregate sums of the said percentage upon any of the said gross semi-annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise and railway, determined and computed as aforesaid, and the said Board of Supervisors, for the purpose of confirming and verifying such statements shall have full and free access by any committee of its members appointed therefor, or representatives to the books, accounts and vouchers of said grantee, its successors or assigns.

16. In case the franchise granted shall be an extension of an existing system of street railroads, such as this is, then the gross receipts shall be estimated to be one-half of the proportion of the total gross receipts of said system which the mileage of such extension bears to the total mileage of the whole system, and said estimate shall be conclusive as to the amount of the gross receipts of said extension.

17. The work of constructing said railway shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from and after the date of the granting of said franchise, and shall thereafter be prosecuted in good faith, and without unnecessary or unavoidable delay, and be completed within not more than three years thereafter. If the grantee, its successors, or assigns, shall in good faith fail to lay tracks and to equip a street railway with necessary poles, wires and appliances to operate the same, as herein provided over, along and upon all the streets for which the privilege and franchise so to do is hereby granted, and is not in good faith operating a street railway thereon, as herein provided, then as to such portion or portions of streets or highways, the grantee, its successors and assigns, shall forthwith forfeit all rights, franchises and privileges granted hereunder as to such streets or portions of such streets or highways not so used.

18. The term "streets" wherever and whenever used herein shall include any and all avenues, highways or county roads referred to.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and including the 30th day of November, 1909, and the clerk of the Board of Supervisors is hereby authorized and directed to cause this ordinance to be published for at least one week prior to the above date in The Fresno Morning Republican, a newspaper printed and published daily, except Sundays in the city of Fresno, said county and state.

This is to certify that the foregoing ordinance and franchise was, at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the county of Fresno, State of California, held on the 11th day of November, 1909, after having been read by said board, duly adopted and ordered published in The Fresno Morning Republican, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said county, by the following vote, to-wit:

Ayes: Supervisors Jorgensen, Huffman, Johnson, Mitchell, Martin.

Noes: None.

Attest

UNCLE SAM IN THE DREADNOUGHT RACE

IT is a race for Dreadnoughts. The competitors are Great Britain, Germany, America, France, Japan and Brazil. A dozen is the product for the last five months, and more are coming.

The Delaware, the first of the United States Dreadnought type completed, made her trial trip Oct. 23 over the measured mile course in Penobscot bay, Maine, and exceeded her speed requirements on her screw standardization runs. The contract called for 21 knots an hour.

The Delaware attained a maximum of 21.563 knots an hour, with an indicated horsepower of her main engines of 28,578. The North Dakota is of the same class as the Delaware. Both of these Dreadnoughts are ready to take their place in the American navy. Each has a tonnage of 20,000.

The Utah and Florida, now building, are twin Dreadnoughts of 21,500 tons each and will carry ten twelve-inch guns each. The former is being built at the New York navy yard, the latter at the New York Shipbuilding company's yards.

In addition to these congress made appropriation for the construction of two battleships of 26,000 tons each. These have not yet been laid down, but they are to be called Arkansas and Wyoming respectively.

With the Utah, Florida, Arkansas and Wyoming completed, the United States will have six Dreadnoughts, and these will give Uncle Sam a standing among the sea fighting nations of the earth.

Great Britain has eight in the Dreadnought class; Germany, six; France is constructing the Mirabeau, a monster in the class now in demand, and Japan is building two in addition to those she has of 20,800 tons each.

The Delaware was built by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock company and the North Dakota at the Fore River shipyards at Quincy, Mass. Both were laid down in 1907. Within the next six months these Dreadnoughts will take their places at at the head of the nation's line of sea fighters. Each is in excess by 4,000 tons of the Michigan, which until the Delaware and North Dakota took the water was the most powerful of the American fleet. In addition to their great displacement and high speed the Delaware and North Dakota are 25 per cent stronger on the offense and defense than any battleships yet constructed. Their broadside batteries can hurl 25 per cent more metal than any ships in their class, while the vitals are protected by heavier armor than any battleships afloat.

While the most formidable Dreadnoughts of the old world carry nothing larger than the twelve inch guns, Uncle Sam is already considering a fourteen inch gun for the next Dreadnought to be launched by this country. The first gun of this bore is nearing completion and will be given its tryout at the proving grounds next spring. It will weigh sixty-seven tons, only seven tons heavier than the twelve inch. The velocity of a shell fired from this monster will be slightly less than that of the twelve inch gun, but it will make up in weight and will have a capacity for penetration of nearly two inches greater thickness of ordinary steel armor. The extreme cost of firing a fourteen inch gun will be $700. The cost of firing a twelve inch gun is $438. However, this is anticipating. It is what has been done that is of interest.

It is only by comparison with the great Dreadnoughts of Great Britain, Germany and France that one can have a better understanding of the capacity of the Delaware and North Dakota.

American Dreadnoughts.

The Delaware developed on her trial run the greatest speed ever made by a first class battleship. She is the most powerful fighter afloat at this time. She outclasses the British Dreadnought. In appearance she differs from the ordinary type. The forward deck is uncommonly high and broad, so as to prevent heavy seas from breaking over the bows and making it possible to fire guns in the forward turrets when the ship is at full speed in a storm. In her main battery she carries twelve inch breechloading rifles mounted in pairs in electrically controlled elliptical turrets situated on the center line of the ship. All ten of the guns can be fired on either broadside. Two skeleton masts set off her superstructure in place of the steel tube masts formerly in use. The new type is made of small steel tubes and steel wire cables. The Delaware is also equipped with two submerged torpedo tubes and has a water line armor belt from stem to stern eleven inches thick along the engine room, fire room and magazine space stepped down at bow and stern. Her length is 510 feet between perpendiculars and 518 feet 9 inches over all. Her beam is 85 feet 3 inches; draft, 27 feet.

The North Dakota, with the same tonnage as the Delaware, will attract worldwide interest among naval people because she is the first battleship anywhere to be fitted with the Curtis type of turbine and is the first in the United States navy to have any kind of turbine. She is much larger than the original British Dreadnought. Her screws are of the Monel metal and weigh about six tons apiece and are some ten feet in diameter. The Monel metal is a new invention. It is practically two-thirds nickel. It will stand a pressure of 80,000 pounds to the square inch, take a high polish and is noncorrosive in water.

The crack battleship of Great Britain, the Neptune, is the biggest warship ever constructed by any nation thus far. Her keel was laid last January, and she was launched at Portsmouth eight months after. She will be completed in January, 1911. The tonnage of the Neptune is 20,250 tons, or more than 2,000 tons heavier than the Dreadnought. Her length is 530 feet, ten feet longer than the Drendnought, and she is two feet wider. Her beam is eighty-four feet; designed speed, 21 knots; horsepower, 25,000. Her armor is to consist of hardened Krupp steel, eleven inches thick amidships and tapering to four inches at each end, and she will carry ten twelve-inch guns. When afloat she will represent an investment of $10,000,000. Nevertheless, at the rate of construction of Dreadnoughts the supremacy of the Neptune is destined to be short lived, for, as before stated, the United States has already appropriated funds for the construction of two that will be greater by 5,550 tons each.

Germany's latest Dreadnought, Ostfriesland (or Oldenburg), has a tonnage of 19,000 tons and carries twelve twelve-inch guns. On the other hand, it must be remembered that Germany has others of the same class. By the close of the present year she will have eleven Dreadnoughts, super-Dreadnoughts and Invincibles launched or in stocks. German experts are confident that the Helgoland, the Ostfriesland and the Beowulf will each be superior to Britain's Neptune in striking force, broadside fire and weight of metal. If the Neptune falls below the German standard either in striking power or more destructive guns at longer range or in a more serviceable subsidiary battery, the armaments of the Hercules and the Colossus will be increased beyond the maximum now known in the British navy.

The Westfalen, the first vessel of the super-Dreadnought type built for the German navy, was launched last July. On her trial trip she exceeded her contract requirements, developing a speed of 20 knots, while her engines indicated 24,000 horsepower. She has a tonnage of 13,500 tons, and her main armament consists of twelve eleven-inch guns. The projectiles fired by these guns are of 760 pounds weight.

If the Indefatigable shall be outclassed by the two armored cruisers soon to be launched at Hamburg, 28 knot or even 30 knot super-Indlexibles with thirteen and one-half inch guns will be deliberately laid down on the British dockyards. The super-Dreadnought is already making Dreadnoughts such as have been described take second place, although only three super-Dreadnoughts have been launched, and the entire class of battleships and cruiser battleships is so new that only a few advanced nations have experimented with them or possess the mechanical plant requisite for constructing them.

France, Japan, Brazil and China.

The French Mirabeau just launched is one of a class of six to be launched. The Mirabeau is the fifth. She is a vessel of 18,027 tons and will be armed with four twelve-inch and twelve 9.4 inch guns, giving her a greater weight of gun fire than the Dreadnought, which was the first of that class. All these French fighters are to be completed by 1911.

The Mikasa, one of the great sea fighters of Japan, which sank and was refloated and reconstructed, has a tonnage of 16,250 tons and carries four twelve-inch guns (45 caliber), which can load in any position. On her trial she developed 16,400 horsepower.

Brazil is also in evidence in big sea fighters. Her Minas Geraes has a displacement of 19,250 tons, and the Rio Janeiro, a sister ship, carries twelve twelve-inch guns.

Contracts involving the purchase of more than $20,000,000 war munitions and battleships will be made by China within the next six months, and it is intimated that the United States will get some of the orders.

STANLEY PRATHER.

Street Railways In London.

The minimum street railway fare in London is 1 cent. The council's cars carry about 412,000,000 passengers a year, and of this number 24 per cent travel at the one cent fare. The maximum length of the one cent fare is one and one-quarter miles. The average one cent stage, however, is 1,022 yards. The longest distance from central London to a suburban terminus is nine and one-half miles. Transfer tickets from 2 up to 8 cents are in use in several cases on the council's system. These tickets are a convenience to the public, while at the same time they save the council from running certain through services which would probably not be remunerative. Transfer tickets are issued only on routes where no through service is in operation nd at certain specified points. The council has to pay tax rates to the amount of about $2,433 a mile of track, besides income tax charges on the profits. The council is required to maintain the paving eighteen inches outside the outer rail and the whole of the area between the rails.

Most Powerful Gun In World.

The new American twelve inch gun, with its penetration of eleven inches of Krupp steel at 9,000 yards, makes it the most powerful gun in the world. It is capable of more than that, but the eleven inch penetration at 9,000 yards would be obtained through the use of normal pressure in the powder chamber and not through the use of an excessive pressure that would soon cause the gun to waste away. The pressure would be about seventeen and a half tons to the square inch, at the maximum, in the firing of the latest twelve inch gun, and this is the pressure that would be used in actual service, enabling it to penetrate eleven inches at 9,000 yards. The shot from the proposed fourteen inch gun would be even more powerful than that of the twelve inch and would penetrate two more inches of Krupp armor at 9,000 yards than the latest twelve inch weapon.

The Stimulus of Clothes.

Clothing, particularly new clothing, is a powerful mental and moral tonic, according to a medical specialist of London. The specialist says that shabby or ill fitting clothes are a source of constant worry, which tends to take the keener edge off the wits of the average man. "The mere fact of being smartly dressed," adds the doctor, "is a strong mental stimulant, and the man who is shabby and knows it is often less capable than his well dressed mental inferior." All this is very comforting to the trade and opens out an alluring vista of the possibilities of the future when the doctor tells his patient that his nerves are run down and that he must get a new suit at once or the result may be serious. The trade will not then be dependent on the capricious weather. On the contrary, if there is a spell of bad weather the medical profession will send a large number of patients to be treated by the clothing cure.

Eat Wood as Food.

In one-quarter of the earth at least wood in a certain form serves as a common and constant article of diet, and that is the northern coast of Siberia. At several points the natives eat wood and eat it because they like it. Even when fish is plentiful wood forms a part of the evening meal of these natives, as testified by numerous travelers. Cleanly stripped larch logs near every hut in that region are silent witnesses to the general fondness for wood diet. The dish is prepared by scraping off thick layers immediately under the bark of the log. These are chopped fine and mixed with snow, the whole being boiled in a kettle. Sometimes a little fish roe, milk or butter is mixed with the wood.

Cigarettes In Mexico.

The cigarette is far more popular among women in the upper circles of European society than it is in Mexico, where if you find a lady smoking she is quite sure to be an elderly woman with an addiction to old customs. That Mexican women generally smoke cigarettes is a notion cherished by foreign writers of Mexican romances sprinkled all over their pages with "Caramba!" "mi Vida," "chili concerne," etc.

A Gift of Wheat 6,400 Years Old.

Some of the wheat which was stored by Joseph during the seven years' famine in Egypt has been sent to a citizen in New England. The wheat will not be planted, as there is no hope that it will grow.

Edwin Hawley's Railroad Success

The Man Who Held His Own With Harriman and Has Become a Financial Factor.

EDWIN HAWLEY.

WHEN Edward H. Harriman died there were some people who talked as if they believed there was a hiatus in the railroad affairs of this country that would not be completely filled until some one in the background grew up to Harriman's shoes.

There were others in the street in which all great railroad and other huge transactions terminate or from which they go out, as you please, who fairly guffawed, metaphorically, at these lamentations. The "others" had known what Edwin Hawley was doing long before Harriman ever dreamed of quitting. Mr. Harriman himself knew, for it is one of the stories of the street that Hawley was the only man Harriman ever met who bent the steel of the magnate who recently passed away.

It is strange that the outside world made its daily forgiversations without apparent knowledge of what Edwin Hawley was doing. He never did business on the housetop. He never scrambled with the crowd to be focused by the light that shimmers for anybody who hungers and thirsts for that sort of publicity. He knew nothing of the megaphone methods of business.

While other giants in the railroad business were reaching out for trunk lines Hawley was gathering in the little lines one at a time until he had enough to make it known that he was a factor to be considered. Here and there were unfinished lines that were practically idle. Every now and then one of these fell into Hawley's hands, and while some wondered what he wanted with it, lo, it began paying dividends. After he had met Harriman the latter never evinced any disposition to renew the contest.

Meanwhile Wall street, that knew something of the man, watched his silent comings and goings, and now there are those who make bold to predict that a greater than Harriman is here. One of the first transactions that made the street fleck the dust from its eyes was that between Hawley and James J. Hill. This was the sale by the former to the latter of the Colorado and Southern company, with 3,000 miles of road. The price was big enough to make many wonder if Hill was asleep when he paid the price. On the heels of this, when Hawley in his characteristic manner took in the Chesapeake and Ohio and its interests, there was enough nudging in Wall street to make the crowd wabble.

Now that Edwin Hawley is recognized as the greatest railroad collector of the country, by which is meant his genius for getting possession of so many small lines, the curiosity to know something about his beginning is pardonable. He was born in Chatham, N. Y., fifty-nine years ago. When he was out of school in his native town he used to put in his spare time at the railroad station watching trains. If he ever dreamed of being in the business no one knew it. Before he attained his majority he went into the commission business, but it did not pay, and he went to New York city. His first job there was in connection with tugboats. That was too slow, and he obtained a clerkship in the general offices of the Erie railway. Just how he shifted himself from that place to the offices of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad company is not of record, but that is what he did. But his opportunity came when he was found by Collis P. Huntington, who owned the Southern Pacific. Huntington put him in charge of the New York office, in which centered many if not all of the Huntington properties. Hawley made a striking success in his work. People who saw them said things about him that would have made a weaker man dizzy. Just then Harriman got to be the power in the company and put in his own man. Hawley resigned. He was not the sort of man to show that he was hurt, but he had a streak of human nature in him that rankled, and he bided his time. Since the discharge and the quarrel Hawley has been at work, and this is the result, showing what he has acquired since the row:

	Miles.
Minneapolis and St. Louis	1,021
Iowa Central	553
Chesapeake and Ohio	1,840
Chicago and Alton	994
Toledo, St. Louis and Western	451
Hocking Valley	347
Toledo and Ohio Central	442
Missouri, Kansas and Texas	2,790
Operated by the M., K. and T.	372
Total Hawley control	7,932

It is one of the stories of the street that Hawley has his eyes on the Pacific slope. If so he is headed that way with some good properties. He now controls, in addition to all the eastern lines, the Chicago and Alton and the Toledo, St. Louis and Western. He is regarded as important in the affairs of the Western Pacific as George Gould and is conceded to be as strong in the Rock Island as ever was Harriman. Hawley and his associates own the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and it is declared and believed in the street that the combination has made a traffic arrangement with the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient that will take their business to the Pacific. In addition, the combination expects to build a connecting link in the Minneapolis and St. Louis line that will give Kansas City another direct road to the Twin Cities of Minnesota.

Edwin Hawley has a home on Long Island and also has one in New York city. When he is at either his family know it, but the public that is always on the alert to know what a magnate is doing socially will remain in the dark so far as Hawley is concerned, for his name does not figure among those who are engaged in such affairs as make up society. He belongs to few clubs and prefers to get his pleasure in golfing, motoring and riding horseback. He is a millionaire. One report is that he is worth $20,000,000. But nobody knows—but Hawley.

He is small in stature, and his frame is surmounted by a large head, with a forehead indicating brain power. What hair he has is gray, and his eyes are set deep. There is nothing on his face to conceal the lines of character, as he is clean shaven. He is president or director in a number of companies and interested in banks, copper mines, bridge building, car coupling, lighting and heating, real estate, and, of course, his great hobby is railroads. He is deliberate in manner and speech, but when he acts he is quick, and there is no revision of his conclusions. His associates are men who have done big things.

BEN LANDIS.

Art of Grinding Glass.

What is said to be an important discovery in the glass industry has been made which will tend to revolutionize the art of grinding glass. The grinder recently discovered is made from one-half heat portland cement and one-half silica sand. In this stone there are no soft or hard spots, and it will grind glass without scratching. The cost of the grindstone is about 10 per cent that of the common grindstone.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Revisit

Ambition of a Man of Many Millions Is to Win the America's Cup.

SIR THOMAS I. LIPTON.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON'S visit to the United States always excites interest. First of all, he is a pleasing gentleman and a successful business man of the world. Besides these, he is what Americans like—a game sport in the best definition of that term. No man who has come over from the other side to test the prowess of any American in any particular business or sport ever did so with as much complacency as Sir Thomas. Even in defeat he is suavity in mode.

His present visit is to arrange for another try for the America's cup. Thrice has he come to wrest the trophy in the keeping of the New York Yacht club, where it has been since 1871. Three times he came with Shamrocks I., II and III. Shamrock I. and II. lost in the races of 1899 and 1901 respectively, the Columbia being the winner in both contests. The last trial was in 1903, when Shamrock III. lost two out of three races, the time of the third race not being reported, because Sir Thomas' boat got lost in the fog. The boat that kept the cup in that contest was the Reliance.

The races of 1903 occurred Aug. 22, 27 and Sept. 3. In 1899 the races took place Oct. 16, 17 and 20. The races in 1901 came off Sept. 28 and Oct. 3 and 4.

Thus it has been six years since Sir Thomas made his third attempt to lift the cup, and as he asks a year in which to build another boat that will meet the requirements of defenders of the cup the next race cannot take place before 1911, even if Sir Thomas is successful in arranging for his fourth go.

If the race is arranged it will be through one of Sir Thomas' clubs, the Royal Ulster or the Royal Irish Yacht club. The report that he might have a boat built by some Canadian yacht club is denied by the man who brought over the Shamrocks.

The doughty Irishman who is here to challenge has already instructed William Fife of Scotland to draw up plans for a racing yacht and expects to place another order with Alfred Milne for a second boat, providing his challenge is favorably received. The deed of gift stipulates that a challenge for the America's cup must be made "with a yacht or vessel propelled by sails only and constructed in the country to which the challenging club belongs." This clause may be abrogated by mutual agreement.

In Sir Thomas' opinion it is not only impracticable, but also dangerous, to send a racing yacht across the water, and he is further of opinion that the stand of the New York Yacht club concerning a race for the America's cup is inconsistent with true sport. He is willing to build a boat to race under the universal rule that governs all yacht racing in this country except for the America's cup.

It is not necessary here to recapitulate what has taken place or to indulge in conjectures as to what will be the outcome of the visit at this time. The results up to date are matters of yachting history, and as one of Sir Thomas' country's poets has said, "What is writ is writ." While Americans had rather see him "lift the blooming cup," as he once expressed it, than any other man, and while they will be interested in reading about his efforts to win, they have a more kindly interest in him as a man.

While there is nothing unusual in his appearance, he would be easily recognized in the street of any American city he might visit. He is one of the best advertised men in either hemisphere. He is the personification of graciousness. He is a bachelor and has passed his fifty-ninth birthday. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, but, mind you, of Irish parentage. It was by royal order that Thomas Johnstone Lipton got his present title, which he carries with becoming modesty.

His fortune is reputed to be somewhere in the neighborhood of twenty millions of dollars, which is being added to yearly. While he is loyal to his country, he insists that in his business all antiquated methods be eliminated and prefers the American idea of conducting his concerns. His offices are decorated with British and American flags. He is most considerate of all in his service, and every now and then he invites a few hundred at a time to go with him to Osidge, his beautiful country residence at Old Southgate, and when they are there they are asked to make themselves at home.

One of his hobbies is the Alexandra trust, a scheme along the line of the soup kitchens which proved such a success in Vienna. He has always shown deep sympathy for the lower classes, especially in what they eat.

CHIEF SHAW RETURNS WITH CONFESSED BAD CHECK MAN

Miles Burlew, Alias Davis, Admits Wholesale Operations From Walla Walla, Wash. to Phoenix, Ariz.---Is Ex-Convict

Chief of Police William Shaw returned last night from Los Angeles having in custody Miles Burlew, alias A. T. Davis and J. E. McKay, confessed bogus check man, who defrauded Fresno merchants out of $300 during the first two weeks in October. Burlew, or Davis as he was known here, admitted everything to Chief Shaw immediately after his capture in Los Angeles at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The arrest was made at the home of Mrs. Nellie Smith, a daughter of the prisoner, at 459 South Evergreen avenue. Not only did he admit that Davis was not his correct name but he gave proof that Burlew was his correct cognomen. Further he confessed to issuing fictitious checks in Fresno and told of his operations from Walla Walla, Washington, to Phoenix, Arizona. En route to this city on the train, Burlew gave his captor a complete list of the bogus checks he had passed on the Pacific coast. He expressed a desire to plead guilty to the charges against him, but shielded at every point his alleged accomplice, Thomas Woods, who has been confined in the county jail since October 23rd. Burlew told of his escape from Fresno and gave a detailed account of his movements since last summer. The prisoner confessed to writing the threatening letter received by District Attorney Church which was turned over by that official to the police. He said that the missive was written in Los Angeles, carried to this city by an unknown hobo and deposited by the messenger in the Fresno postoffice.

In his remarkable confession to Chief Shaw, Burlew declares that he began his fictitious check operations in Walla Walla, Washington, last spring. Single hundred-dollar-bills—amounts ranging from $23 to $24. In all, he secured $310. In North Yakima, Washington, he swindled the merchants out of $360, issuing "2 bad checks, the amounts varying from $16 to $18.

From North Yakima, Washington, Burlew jumped to Clarkston, Oregon, a small town, where he managed to clean up $132 on six checks of $22 each. Having secured a good sized sack by this time, Burlew states that he quit the game for a few weeks and bought a ticket for Phoenix, Arizona. Upon his arrival there he met Thomas Woods, the youth now awaiting trial in the Superior Court for being an accessory to Burlew in the passing of a $14 check on K. M. Nishkian, a Tulare street merchant.

MEETS THOMAS WOODS

From Los Angeles to Phoenix, Burlew was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Nellies Smith, whyo is said to be divorced from her husband. The young woman was with Burlew when he met Woods. The attractive young widow and the youth, a recent arrival from his parents' farm in Illinois, became quite intimate and Burlew stated that he also took a liking to the unsophisticated youth from the East. The trio struck up an acquaintance that resulted in an invitation from Burlew to Woods to stay at the same rooming house. Here began Woods' part in the swindling game, according to the confession from the prisoner.

Burlew stated that he issued six fictitious checks in Phoenix, securing $195 in round numbers. The checks were for $23 or $24, he did not remember the exact amount of each. He says the part Woods played in the game was simple and entirely innocent of any wrong doing. Burlew declared that the youth remained on the sidewalk in front of each business house and received the goods purchased by him. The money received from the fraudulent scheme was also turned over to Woods. Later the young man returned the coin to Burlew, who gave him his share of the spoils in sums of $10 at a time. However, Woods is innocent of any criminal intent according to the ring-leader. After completing their work in Phoenix, Burlew and Mrs. Nellie Smith went to Los Angeles, the home of the woman. Woods accompanied them.

Unhampered, even though he realized that he was well known in Los Angeles, Burlew continued his clever scheme. Seven fictitious bits of paper were dispensed of and $150 was the proceeds.

Then followed a little side trip to Pasadena, where eight $25 checks were drawn and successfully passed on unsuspecting merchants. This netted $200 more. San Diego was next in line and 17 merchants were bunooed, Burlew getting a haul of $405. After a brief rest in Los Angeles, Burlew and Woods came to Bakersfield ostensibly to sell mining stock. The oil town proved to be a bed of roses for Burlew. The sum of $500 was pocketed in record breaking time, twenty checks being issued before the bold criminal decided that it was time to skip to another town.

COMES TO FRESNO

The next step was a jump to Fresno, where Burlew met his Waterloo. Armed with a suit case and a pen and pencil, Burlew "just blew in," as he expressed it. In his little memorandum book, he jotted down the names of the various department stores in the city. He rented a room in a lodging house and informed the landlady that he was selling mining stocks and that his partner would arrive in a few days. Later, Woods put in an appearance. Then followed the systematic flim-flamming of local business men.

Burlew informed Chief Shaw that he had studied the situation thoroughly and was convinced that the could pass at least 25 checks in Fresno without danger of running afoul of the law. Thirteen times he did try, and ten times was he successful. Three merchants, names unknown to the police, turned Burlew down. But with ten fictitious checks he cleared up approximately $300.

TELLS OF ESCAPE

Here followed a detailed account to Chief Shaw of the prisoner's escape from the city. Woods was arrested by Patrolman Castner on October 23 in Nishkian's dry goods store on Tulare street. The suspicious merchant had previously followed Burlew from the store and saw him pass the goods and money secured from the bogus check to Woods. Both started toward their room, and Nishkian followed, after telephoning to police headquarters and relating the suspicious actions of the pair.

By last walking Nishkian caught up with Burlew and Woods and asked them to return to his store till he had called up the bank and ascertained if the check was genuine. Burlew was the spokesman and readily consented to do as Nishkian suggests. As the trio passed the Tulare entrance to the Hughes hotel, Burlew darted into the doorway and disappeared. This was the last seen of Burlew by a Fresnan till Chief Shaw arrested him in Los Angeles Wednesday evening.

Nishkian held onto Woods and upon the arrival of an officer he was placed under arrest. Several check books, which Woods had thrown behind some dry goods boxes were recovered after he was behind the bars. The police did not realize the enormity of the swindling game for several days, when threat by threat the web of guilt was fastened around Woods' partner, then known to the police as A. T. Davis. Each of the checks had been signed by "J. E. McKay" and the authorities put this down as an alias of Davis.

LETTER RECEIVED

Sensation monger ear arrived in the shape of a lengthy communication from "A. T. Davis, for J. E. McKay," in which the writer declared that he was in Fresno, had been since Woods' incarceration and, further, intended to remain here. He defied the officers to catch him and enclosed a photo which he stated was of himself. He threatened those connected with the prosecution of Woods and asserted that the prisoner should be liberated, as he was innocent as a lamb, and had been a tool in the hands of the writer.

To Chief Shaw Burlew stated that he wrote the missive in Los Angeles, gave it to a hobo, who beat his way to Fresno and dropped the letter in the Fresno postoffice. Burlew said that he gave the tramp $1 and a "square meal" to turn the trick. Frankly, Burlew admitted that he did not expect the letter to fall into the hands of the police but he "took a chance."

For the benefit of the police detectives, Burlew wrote the signature "J. E. McKay" on a slip of paper last night. The signature is identically the same as the one signed to the threatening letter and all the checks issued in Fresno.

IS EX-CONVICT

Sheriff Chittenden is positive that Burlew is an ex-convict, having served time for the same offense in the East. Should the prisoner plead guilty, the prior convictions will be pressed against him.

To show his cunning in eluding his pursuers, Burlew explained his manner in escaping from Fresno. After dashing through the Hughes hotel lobby, he secured a room in another part of the city and remained there all night. Early Sunday morning he left his room and walked to Selma, going three miles east and then turning south, making a detour of the temperance town and coming in from the Kingsburg way. Burlew explained this trick as follows: If he walked around the town and came in from the Kingsburg road, the officers, were they on the lookout for him, would be watching the roads leading from Fresno and not from Kingsburg. At Selma, Burlew says he boarded the next southbound train and went to Los Angeles, going direct to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nellie Smith at 459 South Evergreen avenue.

Here he wrote the threatening letter. His daughter engaged the services of P. F. Benson, an attorney, to look after the interests of Woods. Benson came to Fresno and secured an interview with the prisoner by means of a letter of introduction from a retired judge in Los Angeles.

Benson made repeated trips to Fresno after that and to a deputy sheriff last night, as he was walking from the depot to the jail, Burlew said: "That fellow Benson came to Fresno just once too often."

JAMES STATHAM KILLED BY AUTO TURNING OVER

Driving Car and Becomes Frightened While Riding Near Steep Embankment; Turns Wheel Wrong Way; Pinned Under Machine

James M Statham, a pioneer resident of Fresno county, was killed near Selma, when an automobile, which he was driving, turned turtle, rolling down an embankment. Statham was pinned under the car, and although two other men who were with him at the time, made a strenuous effort to extricate him, their effort was without avail. F. B. Waterman, owner of the machine, a big Winton, and a man named Porter, were the other two occupants. The accident occurred on Railroad avenue.

Both of these men escaped injury, although Waterman was pinned under the machine for a few moments. His legs were caught by the edge of the seat, but after some work, he managed to extricate himself. The automobile was practically undamaged. The top was smashed, one lamp broken and the steering wheel badly bent, but beyond this, the car did not receive a scratch. After it had been righted, Waterman drove it back to Fresno on its own power.

The body was taken to Selma, and Coroner Bean notified. The coroner and Henry Hawson, deputy district attorney, arrived in Selma at 7 o'clock last night, but Waterman and Porter had already come to Fresno, and so it was decided to hold the inquest today.

James Statham was a brother of Jeff D. Statham and George Statham, and was a native of Fresno county. He was 50 years of age. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

When the accident occurred the party was on its way home to Fresno. E. B. Waterman, accompanied by Statham, Porter and H. A. Daniels of Kingsburg, left Fresno early yesterday afternoon for Kingsburg, leaving Donnels at his home. On the way back, the other three stopped in Selma, where Waterman had some business, and started for home shortly before 4 o'clock.

Statham drove the car almost all the way from Fresno to Kingsburg, and was to have driven back to Fresno. He had never driven a car before, and Waterman, who was seated beside him, was teaching him.

About a mile out of Selma, the party met another automobile, driven by Ed Whiteside of Wheatville. At the point where the machines met, there was an embankment of about 10 feet on the right-hand side of the road, coming toward Fresno. Statham turned the car out of the road all right, and ran along the edge of the bank. According to Waterman, he seemed to lose his head when he started to turn back into the road again, and turned the machine the wrong way.

Waterman seized the steering wheel, and sought to turn it in the right direction, toward the middle of the road, crying out at the time, "My God, let loose, Jim!"

Statham's hands remained rigid, however, fastened to the steering wheel, and it was impossible for Waterman to wrench them free. The machine was not exceeding five miles an hour at the time, and as it turned over it went very slowly. Porter cleared the car, and Waterman was thrown over Statham, his leg being caught under the right-hand side of the car. Finally extricating himself, he turned to Porter and said: "Are we all here?"

Statham was not to be seen, however, and running around to the left-hand side of the car, as it lay bottom up in the gulch, Waterman saw Statham's hat crushed under the side of the car. Fearing that Statham's head had been crushed in, he cried out:

"Is that your head, Jim?"

"No, my head's all right, but I wish you could lift the car a little," responded Statham.

The two men then seized the car, and lifted it partially up, but Statham kept asking: "Can't you lift it just a little more, boys. Can't you lift it just a little more?"

The great weight finally became too much for the two men, and they were forced to let the big machine fall back on Statham. In the meanwhile, Whiteside rushed down the Southern Pacific tracks to a point where two peons were working, and securing them, returned with them. These men extricated Statham, but by that time he had become unconscious, and was dead before he reached the undertaking parlors in Selma.

Porter was seated in the back of the car, and when the car toppled over, sprang clear, and escaped without injury. The car ran along the bank of the road fully 50 feet before it finally turned turtle. It was only during part of this time that Waterman sought to wrench the wheel from Statham, for he did not realize he were so badly frightened.

Word was telephoned to Fresno immediately after the accident, and Jeff and George Statham left immediately for the scene of the tragedy. After several hours of work, the car was extricated from the gulch, righted and started toward Fresno, with Waterman at the wheel.

One peculiar feature of the accident is the fact that this accident occurred very close to the spot where J. J. Anderson was killed last February. Statham was killed in very much the same manner as Anderson also. He was caught between the steering wheel and the back of the seat, and suffered internal injuries which resulted in death shortly afterward. There were no marks on the man's body last night to tell of his injuries, but a hasty examination showed that he had been crushed internally.

At the date of his death, James Statham was engaged in the real estate business in Fresno on a small scale. He leaves, besides his brothers in this city, two children, now living in the east.

In speaking of the tragedy last night, Jeff Statham stated that the strangest part of the whole thing was his brother's desire to learn to drive an automobile when he did not have the means to purchase one.

HIS WATERLOO

Evidently the prisoner spoke the truth, for Chief Shaw captured him by means of following Benson to Los Angeles and shadowing the attorney's office. He saw the woman, Mrs. Smith come to the office. He followed her and the arrest was made at 6 o'clock when Shaw and three detectives of the Los Angeles police department surrounded the house and after ascertaining that their man was there by means of watching a milkman, who hammered on the door till someone answered, Burlew answered the door and after securing a glimpse of him Shaw and the detectives entered the yard and while the Los Angeles officers stood guard, Shaw rapped at the door and when Burlew opened it placed him under arrest. The handcuffs were locked about his wrists and the chase for the bold fugitive was at an end. A loaded 41 calibre revolver was found under a sofa pillow, but Burlew made no move toward it. He quietly submitted to arrest, but denied that he was Davis or anyone else for a few minutes. His daughter cried and protested her father's innocence. Later both admitted their identity and she confided to Chief Shaw that she had entertained grave fears for weeks that Burlew was too bold and would be captured ultimately.

EFFORT TO FREE J. N. WALKER, JR.

At 9 o'clock this morning, Judge Church of department two of the Superior court will be asked to pass upon a writ of habeas corpus sworn out by Attorney George Cosgrave last night for the release of J. N. Walker, Jr., now confined in the county jail on a charge of deserting from the U. S. naval station at Mare Island. Walker was arrested Wednesday evening by U. S. Marshal J. P. Coyle. The specific ground in the writ is that Walker is being incarcerated in the jail without a warrant of arrest. Walker is alleged to have deserted from the navy six years ago.

CHARGE AGAINST ACTOR DISMISSED

The charge of disturbing the peace against Frank Vack, comedian of the Novelty theater, sworn to by W. B. Longwell, a traveling salesman, was dismissed by Police Judge Briggs yesterday. The actor accused Longwell of making unbecoming remarks to Mrs. Railsback, one of the actresses at the Novelty. She reported the matter to the comedian, who took Longwell to task for his actions. A words war resulted. The evidence was conflicting.

BUYS A LOTTERY TICKET; ARRESTED

A Japanese giving his name as K. Kamura was arrested last night by Patrolman Goehring for having lottery tickets in his possession. The arrest was made in the oriental quarter.

J. M. Dempsey, adjudged insane by Jus. Miller and Barr on Thursday, was taken to the state asylum at Stockton yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Harry Staley.

Our Reputation Expands

Last week we had three different people from the extreme northern part of the state make the journey to Fresno to have us make them glasses because friends of theirs whom we had fitted told them that we would fit them perfectly and treat them fairly.

During Portola week a traveling man who lives in San Francisco had his glasses knocked off and broken on the street. He waited several days to get back to Fresno to have us refit him. He said we had done his work more satisfactorily than he had ever got it in the city.

We are not "swelled up," we are just trying to improve the service every day.
